THE GAME LAW AMENDMENT

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S BILL UP FOR DISCUSSION.

Registrar and his works and ways, Mr.
Meredith expressed a wish to add an amendment enlarging the scope of the resolution and the debate was adjourned until Monday.

Legal Home Rule.

Morton Keachie was given $300 and his wife $700 by a jury at the assizes yesterday afternoon.

In charging the jury Justice Falconbridge laid down the principle of law that a citizen was entitled to cross a street at any point and was entitled to protection.

Hon. Mr. Gibson moved the second reading of the bill amending the Game Protection Act, and stated that when the measure reached the committee stage he should propose an amendment extending the close season for quail and wild turkey to October, 1897. Some criticism had been made as to the expense of carrying out the law, but that was largely met by the licenses of $25 inposed on outsiders shooting in Ontario, and he thought it well to allow American sportsmen the privilege of allow American sportsmen the privilege of taking away deer, provided they paid this

Mr. Gibson of Huron thought the hunt-ing season had been fixed to commence too Mr. Cleland thought the time allowed was altogether too long.

Hon. Mr. Gibson said that the lengthen ing of the season for deer was due to largely-signed petitions from people who wanted to go hunting while the weather was still pleasant. There was likely always to be much difference of opinion on this head.

Mr. Balfour urged further protection against Americans crossing the line and shooting ducks.

The bill was read a second time. The Attorney-General's bill respecting the call of solicitors to the baf was adopted
