A Word on the Reduction in Prices

A FTER six years of soaring that the peak has been reached and the lowering of prices on many lines may now be looked for. In fact, already throughout the entire store, you will find many instances of most favorable reductions. We might add that the policy adopted by this store is to mark all goods on the basis of replacement prices. This means that our customers are now receiving the benefit of the lowest prices quoted for next year's delivery. At all times our patrons may depend on procuring the highest quality merchandise marked at the lowest possible margin and that based on the most favorable quotations procurable.

Wholesale price is falling down, Faling down, falling down;
Wholesale price is falling down,
My fair dealer.
Price of wheat is falling down,
Falling down, falling down;
Price of flour's falling down,

he But the price of bread stays up,
Toll me why the price stays up,
Toll me why the price stays up,
Any fair baice.
