GENTLEMEN a. Agreeable to your wishes I shall appear as a candidate for your suffrages at the oming Election

It is gratifying to me to see the requisition so numerously and respectably signed. I feel assured that such a demonstration of your confidence, cannot fail to benefit me in other sections of the county. This requisition contains the names of more than two thirds of all, the legal voters in the Parishes of Saint George and Pennfeld; it is to you Gentlemen, who have known me from my earlight years, that I must look for a recommendation, and with such a one as you have given me, I fearnot to go forth to other sections of the County.

In order that the sesidents of the western Parishes and the islands might know about the amount of my support at home, honesty requires, that the names of none but freeholders should appear upon the requisition; there may passibly he the names of ten, residing in distant parts of the Parishes, who are not qualified to vote, had the names of ratepayers been received the list might easily have been increased to double the number it how contains.

I wish to thank my friends, who are not voters according to the present existing law, for the kind interest they have already manifested; and trust they will continue to exert it;—"the MIND'S the standard of the man."
