am, Gent'emen, Your grateful Servant. A. MACKENZIE take the liberty of addressing for the great benefit I have refor the great benefit I have rehuly valude Macassak Oil, insfortune to lose my hair at the eenty, in consequence of a lainduced, et the instance of a induced, et the before entirely bald, was soon

k and surong hair. I am now and could scarcely have expecting worn a wig for five and y life, I should now be enabled y side. I think it but justice the public, to add my testimoof voor truly incestimable Oil, tull permission to make this letrefer any one to me for proof its invaluable discovery.
am, Gentlemen,
obliged and obedient Servant.
W. C. FKIDEAUX.

W. C. PRIDEAUX.

ch 21, 1812.

r directed to Mr Oldroyd, Meron, from a friend at Napies, led May 6, 1823.

r attention to the following:—
iot the 4th Regiment of Line, lis Emperial Mejosity the Emaged 41 years, has been hald of 18 He was recommended to 18 He was recommended to 8 Macassak Olt. by a Gendready experienced its good etcome of the last quantity ngland, and persevered in apthan two months his ha it grew and is now very thick. The pleased and has spread its fame femand for that article is very g you to send me a fresh supply ne the result is, that I have this wig, my hair being quite restor-nd great in quantity as when I

ISSAROIL.

erfumer and Chemist throughout

Winter Goods.

pool,

THS.

iled at.d unboiled VM. BABCOCK & SON.

Ropemakers ibers will give employment MEN, having a practical Lopemaking. J. & R. JARVIS. eb. 20, 1844.

he originals of which may be LAND AND SON, 20, HATTON laving derived essential benefit for Macassan Ott, I am induced articulars, which you are at li-wn as you may think proper, twelve mouths since I made ough I confess with not much a baid eighteen years. It was before any effect was perception of the many of the baid of the many on the baid chilong. I then had the whole riy shaved once a week for a od, constantly using the Ott.

Am, Gentlemen.
Your obedient servant,
C. P. DRIFFIELD.
t, Brighton, April 19, 1832. WLAND'S

knowledged to be the only artually produce and restore Hair, KKRS, Mestachios, and Even tions faing of or turning grey and dandry, and render it degreely early and glossy. Yumerous pernicious compounts ACASSAR OIL. To ensure ce that the bottle in enclosed in lengraving of exquisite workshich were engraved "ROW-SSAR OIL," in two lines, maure the genuine article, see Roseland's Macassar Oil," ea, ack of the envelope mearly Iriaining 29,028 letture—without retaining 29,028 letture—without reta Family Bottles, (equal to four id double that size, 12s per bot-

me, "Brothers" from Liver-

ings, & Shirtings, unbleaches Printed Cottons, ne Standard.

VOLUME 11

FRONTEER GAZETTE.

Price 15s. in Town]

SAINT ANDREWS, NEW BRUNSWICK, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 3, 1844.

[15s. sent by Mail.

SUMMARY OF NEWS.

the sentence passed on Mr. O'Connell and the other defendants (with the exception of the Rev. Mr. Tierney.) in the State Trials in Ireland. The Dublin Freeman's Journal of the Ist instant, comes to us shrowded with mourning on the occasion of the imprison of consumption of the Ist instant, comes to us shrowded with mourning on the occasion of the imprison of consumption of consumption of consumption of construction of the law mourning on the occasion of the imprison of consumption of consumption now apathetic to his call will find a magic in he has been your uncompromising advocate, the martyr's voice which they cannot with Protestants of Ireland!—It may be that instalculates. We have again incarcerated, of the freeman dumb? Foots who think so There are ly in defence of your rights. We ask not an men more able and quite as fearless to supply our place. Will the incarceration of our feed and Duffy silence the guns of the Notion? England will soon learn. Barrett is shut up, that they miscalculate the energy of the Litish property of the therefore be silent? Nay, thore,—let tyranny do its worst—let man after man be seized, till all the English prical cause he has sought to render your country great, prosperous and happy.

'Irishmen of every class and creed! Rallowers and defence of your rights. We ask not an without—'The bises, the honor, Miss of its success; but let your opponents feel that they miscalculate the energy of the litish propel if they believe that the national spirit daunted by state prosecutions.

Because I'm twenty-are.

Once, if the night were ere so bright, I ne'er abroad would roam without—'The bises, the honor, Miss of its success; but let your opponents feel that they miscalculate the energy of the litish propel if they believe that the national spirit daunted by state prosecutions. after man be seized, till all the English prisons be filled to overflowing we will tell "Let the inhabitants of every parish, with They used to call, and ask me all

The monster trial is over at last; and the assemble in constitutional array.

I'm forced to take the stage;

"Above all let your loss perceive that the bare been three months ago. The scene of struggle for our national rights will terminate the stage in the stage i bravade is at an end; the Agitator and his nate only with the restoration of the Legisla followers are now quietly lodged under lock fative Independance of Ireland.

Signed on behalf of the Committee,

To help the distribution of the Legisla To h llion has followed none of those "indignant roars" against the Saxon which were to have spoken the vengeance of the people, have spoken the vengeance of the proper.

have been heard—none of the "grand move ments which were to have made the "Cabinot be opened until September, instead of dunet tremble, shaken the adprenacy of England, and astonished mankind," have been Majesty may then be able, as well as willing the dead of the card, nor soft address.

My spirits now reviee; net tremble, shaken the supremacy of England, and astonished mankind," have been achieved. But the whole cabal have been sentenced, with no more difficult than any other half dozen culprits; conveyed to their several cells, with no more public excitement than if they had been convicted of the meanest description of fraud; and will be as much forgotten within the next week as if they were on their way to Australia.

 The night which saw the sentence passed The night which saw the sentence passed of the Right Hon. H. The most rejoicing night to millions of the Right Hon. H. The night which saw the most rejoicing night to millions of the Right Hon. H. The night which saw the sentence passed of the respect to the respe was the most rejoicing night to millions of the Irish people which they have enjoyed for this quarter of a century. They saw it a pledge of peace, a proof of the strength of law, and a promise that the perpetual hitterness of agitation would be exchanged for the leave the proof of the strength of the ness of agitation would be exchanged for the leisure to follow their own industry, and culture the powers with which nature has "gri. cese. Limerick Chronicle."

The powers with which nature has "gri. cese. Limerick Chronicle."

The powers with which nature has "gri. cese. Limerick Chronicle."

The powers with which nature has "gri. cese. Limerick Chronicle."

The Evening Post of this day contains a list of the gentlemen who visited Mr. O'Con-nell this foresoon including Sir John Pow-er, Bart., Hon. Capt. Southwell, Rev. Dr

The State Prisoners — Address to the People of Ireland.

At an extraordinary meeting of the general committee of the Loyal National Repeal Association of Ireland, held at the Corn Exchange Rooms on the 30th of May, 1844.

Mr. William Smith O'Brien, in the Chair, it was moved by Sir Colman O'i orgalen, and seconded by Mr. Thomas Davies, that the following address be adopted, and be signed by the chairman on behalf of the Committee: whether resident in the dominions of the punishment of any British subject, whether resident in the dominions of the countrymen,—The Leader who, by the labors of a life devoted to Ireland, has

The penalties of this Act would apply to rope, during the last twenty four hours. Of:

Sc. Andrews, 12th April, 1844.

Is a country meeting of the general had been adopted to enforce it.

Also, whether the British Government of the general had been adopted to enforce it.

Also, whether the British Government of the without tool, but where its product send without tool, but where its product send of industry, and the powers of the mind as well as the labors of the hand are severely laxed in the struggle for the means of absistence and the powers of the mind as well as the labors of the hand are severely laxed in the struggle for the means of absistence and the powers of the mind as well as the labors of the hand are severely laxed in the struggle for the means of absistence and the powers of the mind as well as the labors of the hand are severely laxed in the struggle for the means of absistence and the powers of the mind as well as the labors of the hand are severely laxed in the struggle for the means of absistence and the powers of the mind as well as the labors of the hand are severely laxed in the struggle for the means of absistence and the powers of the mind as well as the labors of the m

We have already given the particulars of tions, has been consigned to a prison because outrage on our national rights.

the marty voice which they cannot will. Forestants of freiand in the stand. His person England can immure, in attempting to maintain an ascendency but his sparit will still be abroad quickening you have sometimes been exasperated by the the dead, and giving new vigour to those attack of its most powerful assailant, but unwho have already entered on the good less every generous sentiment be extinguish. But lovers now have ceased to vow—
No way they now contrive But we will be told the sentence will si remember that O'Connell is a prisoner belence the Repeal Press. Again England cause he has sought to render your country.

Roy way they now countrie To poison, drown, or hang themselves—Because I'm twenty-five.

them there will yet remain men able and undatunted who will do the work of Areland. But though England has on this day done good work for the cause, no true-born Irishman will forget the thirt that the particles, and to record their indignant protest against the injustice of which they have test against the injustice of which they have test against the injustice of which they have the following are a portion of the remarks. Let the concentrated intelligence of our towns with the particism of our fields. Let the clergy lead whilst they restrain their flocks. Let the freeholders of the Counties they ought to call, and ask me all About my health so trail; And thought a ride would help my side, and turn my cheek less pale, But now, alas! if I am ill, None cares that I revive; and my pale cheek in vain may speak, the clergy lead whilst they restrain their flocks. Let the freeholders of the Counties of the Counties assemble in constitutional array.

WM. S. O'BRIEN, Chairman."

by the labors of a life devoted to Ireland, has The penalties of this Act would apply to rope, during the last twenty four hours. Of St. Andrews, 12th april, 1844.

Without-" The blies, the honor, Miss But now now I go, through rain or snow-Through all the dark without a spark-

Because I'm twenty him.

Oh dear-'t's queer that every ye and its moral influences are innumerable and Washington, June 12.

In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Walket offering an observation of the different conditions of esolutions calling on the President to indifferent nations or communities, that a laboresolutions calling on the President to instruct of the Senate, to-day, Mr. Walket offering of trasting of trastin won the pubounded affection of his own British subjects who were naturalized citi- these, eight hundred and ninety-five came countrymen and the homafie of distant nations, has been consigned to a prison because outrage on our national rights.

Garrick.

that to attract attention is to gain admiration. But whimsicality, whether shows in dress, manner or opinion, does not deserve, and never obtains, permanent admiration; it is more likely to meet the smile of contempt or the sneer of ridicule. A claim to superiority and distinction, established on such a foundation, has nothing to secure it.

A RICH SCENE -A day or two since a without taking any particular notice of his homes, he took off his coat and cravat, chair, sa down, crossed his es, and, in quite an authorative tone, called

Water sir! said the clerk, who had been best quality.

Water sir! said the clerk, who had been best quality.

Among the Garden Seeds are BEANS, PEAS, RADISHES, TURNIPS,

PUBLIC NOTICE.

tivate the powers with which nature has "gift cess.—Limerick Chronicle.

We are glad to learn that within the last by true, not merely of the Protestants, but month, shipping property, (chiefly new,) to the passantry? Has it given them an addithem of a great many of both, it has involved them in wrath with their landlords, and has at once insulted their loopers and imporerished their country.

Dublin, June 1.

The Liberator and his companions are in the enjoyment of excellent health and spirits, rejoicing in their imprisenment as the most convicting testimony of the truth of their denuncistions against English rule.

We are glad to learn that within the last within the last within the last with the proposed of the passance o

I HEREBY focus all Persons from his bonring or trusting - my wife Eliza-BETH ; as she has left my bed and board

WM. HAGERTY.

COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE. In the Province, or New Brunswick, In the matter of Thomas Algar, a Bank-

WHEREAS under the Provisions of the of the lat instant, comes to us shrowded with mourning on the occasion of the imprisonment of Mr. O'Connell and the other travers, of which the editor of that paper is also one. The following age the concluding paragraphs of an editorial article in the Freedman, headed "Remember the thirtieth of plays".

"From this day will Ireland number the thirtieth of plays and from this day will present of the stander of the latest age—if otherwise remaining days of her captivity, and from this day will reland number to a prison. The remaining days of her captivity, and from this day will reland number to a prison.

"Element of the latest age—if otherwise remaining days of her captivity, and from this day will reland or concurrence in his sentiments—conduction to a prison." The resolution shows alleged. Connell has already kindled the flams of fast of the remaining days of her captivity, and from this day will reland or the days of the captivity, and from this consideration in the cause of your countries to the captivity that flams or a will fan with more now apathetic to his call were he at linearly stories which the prison basis than he shows any apparature of the prison basis than he has been your uncomproming advocate. BECAUSE I'M TWENTY FIVE.

BECAUSE I'M TWENTY FIVE.

"Protestants of Ireland!—I was beautiful. The prison basis that he has been your uncomproming advocate. Protestants of Ireland!—I was decided to make minotine in the fartase could discuss the could not be disposed and other actions to the gall and the testing the side in the grant of the remaining claration of the facts and yet every now and constructed to make minotine in could make the said, in the could not be deposed and them accurately not construct the said and the design of the prison as the instructed to make minotine on the could not be deposed and them accurately now and so offen Intellects of burning characters of the fact, and yet every now and the guerrant of the fact, and yet every now and the guerrant of the fact, and yet every now and th of her children, as if in the act of chooking.

She immediately opened the door and raised the windows, and took the children from the bed, but they both fell apparently lifeless upon the fluor, and it was a long time before life appeared to return. In her efforts to get water to pour into their faces, her lamp fell into the bucket, and she was obliged to work with her children during the whole night in the dark and alone—no other person being in the house at the same.

the dark and alone—no other person being in the house at the time.

The children were finally restored, but they suffer somewhat still from the effects of the gas. It is highly dangerous to use charshould be done under any circumstance.

To Women.—A sensible woman should not indulge in that feminine weakness, the love of variety, which so frequently displays itself by an ever-varying costume. Whime-sicality of dress is neither presof of good taste nor good sease, but rather results from the absence of both, or from the mistaken notion that to attract attention is to gain admiration. Given under my fran 19h day of April 1844.

H. HATCH. Cammissioner of the Estate and L.fec : of Bankrupts, for the County of

GARDEN & FIELD SEEDS. Samuel Getty,

RESPECTFULLY informs his Friends and numerous Customers that he has just received a large supply of GARDEN and FIELD SEEDS, of last years growth, from that old established House, the New England Seed Store Boston, which he can warrant to be of the Barrels.

April 9, 1844.

PROVISIONS, &C.

The Subscriber offers for Sole.

BLS and half Bols. SUPERFINE
FLOUR fancy and common brands,
RYE Flour, DYSPEPSIA Flour in half

Bbls. kiln dried Corn Mesl, Rye day, Oatmeal, Clear Mess and Prime PORK, Navy and Pilot Bread, Wa er Crackers, &c., ALSO a few Hhds. and Tierces prime 18: siling Molasses.

R. WALTON.

Brandy, Loaf Sugar, Tea &c.

The Subscriber has just received per the burgue Brunswick, from Liverpool:

HDS best Coguse Braudy, and Holande Gin.

2 do. Superior Old Port Wine, 8 Cheste Congou Ten. 64 Kegs Best White Paint, 50 Boxes Y. Soap. 6 Boxes best Poland Starch.

2 Hinds. Refined Sugar. Bols, and 1-2 Bols, Pot Berley

I. W.y. 1844.