

Deloro Brown Copper Arsenic Dust

Retail Price $4.75 per 100 lb. Bag

"Made at the Mouth of the Mine"

DELORO ARSENATE of Lime which is used in the compounding of this dust has been proved by actual tests on glass to be more ADHESIVE than either LEAD ARSENATE or CALCIUM ARSENATE. It has also been proven FIVE TIMES as stable as the grades of Calcium Arsenate. In addition it contains LESS SOLUBLE ARSENIC than ordinary Lead Arsenate.

The Copper Sulphate in the new dust is in the combined form and not in the free state, as in the mixed dusts heretofore used, thus making it ABSOLUTELY SAFE on foliage under ALL CONDITIONS.

Growers who have a knowledge of chemistry will therefore realize that Deloro Brown Dust is a better sticker than the old dust could possibly be, even when mixed with lead arsenate.

Experiments at Cornell in 1922 with Copper Dust made by Deloro process showed it to be a better floating dust than any other dust heretofore produced.

Remember THIS DUST HAS EXACTLY THE SAME ANALYSIS AS THE BLUE COPPER ARSENIC DUST and is made by a chemical plant today controlling one fifth of the world's supply of arsenic and manufactured under the supervision of chemists with the analysis stamped and guaranteed on every bag leaving the plant.

Use Brown Copper Arsenic Dust for all but the early or after blossom application on apples, when Sulphur Lead Arsenate Dust should be used, in order to avoid fruit russeting.

The results obtained by growers and not the opinions of scientists or competitors made Blue Copper Arsenic Dust a success in Nova Scotia in 1919. The results obtained by growers did the same in New York State in 1922. We expect the results by growers and not the opinions of our competitors to put Deloro Brown Copper Arsenic Dust over in 1923.

A full line of 90-10 Sulphur Lead Arsenate, Nicotine Dust, Lead Arsenate, Arsenate of Lime, Green Potash Dust, Wettable Sulphur, Nicotine Sulphate, etc.

RICE-ANDERSON WEDDINGS

A wedding of much interest in social circles took place on Wednesday morning of last week when Miss Annie Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Avar Anderson, was united in marriage to Mr. Ralph Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Millego Rice.

The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, at 10.30. Rev. E. Underwood officiating. The bride was dressed in a handsome navy blue travelling suit with hat to match. Both parties were unattended and the guests were made up of relatives and very immediate friends of the contracting parties. At the close of the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served and the happy couple left on the express for Halifax on their honeymoon trip.

The wedding gifts were numerous and valuable.

On return Mr. and Mrs. Rice will reside at Carleton Corner.

INGLISVILLE

The funeral of Mrs. Phoebe Beals, widow of the late Jacob Beals, which took place on Jan. 20th, from the residence of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miles, was largely attended. The deceased was in the 89th year of her age. Seven years ago she was stricken with paralysis, and was confined to her bed since that time. Her suffering was borne with great patience. She leaves two sons and three daughters to mourn their loss.

The W.M.A.S. intend holding their next meeting at the home of Mrs. Sidney Bayes.

Mr. Carmen Bishop, who recently purchased Mr. John Hat's farm, is no wakening possession.

We regret that our good neighbor and merchant, Mr. Asa Beals, has moved from this place to Williamston. Storms and bad roads have prevented our pastors, Rev. A. H. Whitman and Rev. H. Rackham, from filling their appointments in this place.

Mr. Carroll Young spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Beals, en route from Springfield to Worcester, Mass.

Mr. Dudley Bartheaux, from Dysart, Saskatchewan, is spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Beals, and intends visiting his many friends in this place, his former home. He has been a very successful teacher in the West for the past fifteen years.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beals have gone to Somerset, Kings Co., to spend a few weeks with their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Beals.

OBITUARY

Mr. Howard Troop. The death occurred at his home in Granville Centre last week of Mr. Howard Troop, after an illness of some length. The deceased leaves a wife who is a sister of Mr. Sam Mack, Upper Granville, to mourn the loss of a kind husband who was universally respected and esteemed, a brother, Mr. Arch. F. Troop, of Granville; two sisters, Mrs. J. L. Amberman, of Granville Ferry, and Miss Maggie Troop. The funeral took place on Saturday and services were conducted by Rev.

Local Happenings

Eight hundred Old Country coal miners are booked to come out to work in Pictou and Cape Breton this year.

The meeting of the Women's Institute will be held on Thursday afternoon at 3.30 in the Board of Trade rooms.

The W.M.A.S. of the Baptist Church will meet in the vestry of the church Tuesday, Feb. 6th, at 2 p.m. Contributions for the Automobile Dollar Fund will be received at that meeting.

The last of the series of social gatherings under the auspices of St. James' Church Organized Bible Class will be held in their school room next Wednesday evening (Feb. 7th) from 7.30 to 10.

Middleton hockey team defeated Bridgetown on Monday night in Middleton rink by a score of 10 to 4. We would like to give a little story of the game but at time of writing the team has not arrived home.

Rev. Alexander Torrie will address the Baptist Brotherhood in the vestry of the church on Sunday at noon. His subject will be "The Key Man" and doubtless some interesting and important truths will be elaborated.

A real estate deal of importance was put through this week by the Lloyd Real Estate Agency when Mr. C. R. Longley disposed of his property on South Street to Mr. V. P. Smith, of Paradise, the latter taking over Mr. Smith's property.

The rector and congregation of St. Mary's Church, Belleisle, will hold their annual "At Home" in Belleisle Hall to-morrow (Thursday) evening, from 6.30 to 10. This family gathering is always a delightful occasion and doubtless to-morrow evening will be no exception to the rule.

We heard this week of a farmer who claimed he was too poor to take the home paper, but all the same he read a notice in a Yankee paper some one sent him, telling how to prevent a horse from slobbering, and he sent $1.00 for the receipt. In ten days he got a letter for the dollar: "Teach your horse how to spit."

Tonight's carnival is expected to be the most interesting yet held being a Fancy Dress and Calthumpian combined. Skaters will have an excellent opportunity to exercise their ingenuity in getting up novel and attractive costumes, and four prizes are being given, two for best fancy costumes and two for the funniest and most mirth provoking.

Nat Doherty, the well-known hotel man, is now in Pictou County, and is remodelling the Ora Hotel, Stellarton, with the intention of opening this hostelry up for business. Some years ago Mr. Doherty operated this hotel quite successfully. Later he ran the Prince George Hotel in Halifax. Then he leased the Prince George and amused himself by raising poultry. —Pictou Advocate.

Word has been received here of the death of his home on Howard Street in Brooklyn of Dr. Fred Jewett. The doctor accompanied by his wife and two sons, motored here last Summer and spent some time in the County. The deceased who was an uncle of Miss A. G. Longley, of Upper Granville, was one of a family in which there were four doctors. He and Mrs. Jewett made many friends here who will learn with regret of the doctors' decease.

J. Frank Crowe, wife and daughter, of Halifax, N. S., Canada, arrived in our city this week and has purchased a home and will make his residence here. Mr. Crowe is a retired wholesale grocer of Halifax and the fact that he was much impressed by this country is proven by his quick purchase of a home. He contemplates investing in business and grove property here and is a welcome addition to the town. The sale of the home property was reported as being consummated by the Garrison Land Company.—Halifax City Herald.

THE BENEFITS OF ADVERTISING

Who of our readers over 20 years of age has not heard of Day & Martin, the world-renowned manufacturers of shoe blacking, which was advertised everywhere in the newspapers, just as Minard's Liniment is now. But unfortunately one of its later managers decided to withdraw all their notices, as he believed it was money wasted, and the reputation of the article would continue its prosperity. Alas and alack! We read to-day that Day & Martin, the famous manufacturers of shoe blacking, who have been in operation for 150 years, are being sold out. The manager explains that up to 1912 the firm held the leadership in this trade through advertising. Its failure to advertise

GRANVILLE FERRY

Miss Dorothy Saunders, who has been visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Reed Blair, returned to her home in Clarence on Thursday.

Miss Dortha Mortimer, of Dartmouth, is visiting her friend, Miss Lillian Bohaker.

Mrs. E. Wade returned home from Clementsport on Wednesday.

Miss Bessie Caswell left for North Easton, Mass., on Saturday. She was accompanied by her sister, Nettie, as far as St. John, N. B.

Having completed the casing in of the piers of the Granville-Annapolis bridge, Forman Kaulback and Engineer Blenus left for their homes in Halifax last week.

Mrs. John L. Amberman received word last week that her mother, Mrs. James Hutchinson, was very ill in Arlington, Mass.

Mrs. Lois Caswell who celebrated her 103rd birthday Saturday, besides having many friends to chat with her, she was the recipient of many greeting cards, booklets, etc. The following is a greeting from E. C. Bowers, Westport, this being a rhyme of his own composition:
Five score and three, it seems to be,
That few on earth can say, like thee;
Beyond the century line,—yet smart and able yet to do your part
In keeping house, to sweep and cook,
To scan the news and read the book;
In fact to do what many a one
Of half your years, must leave undone.
In science now, you see forsooth
What was not dreamed of in your youth;
And greater mysteries yet you'll see,
In the next decade lived by thee.
But other hands than mine must send
Your birthday card, my aged friend:
Best wishes now, from E. C. B.
In nineteen hundred and twenty-three.
Mrs. Caswell's pastor, the Rev. Alexander Gibson's greeting to her was as follows:—
Annapolis Royal,
Jan. 20th, 1923.

Mrs. Lois Caswell, Granville Ferry, N. S.

Dear Sister Caswell:—It is with the greatest pleasure that we extend congratulations to you on having reached the one hundred and third anniversary of your birth. Scidm does such an event take place in the lives of human beings. Of what great privileges it speaks, of what opportunities, of what joys and sorrows.

Nine days before George III closed his long eventful reign you first saw the light of day. What great changes have taken place in the Empire under the reigns of the five sovereigns who have followed him. What changes have taken place in the growth of Baptist Churches during that time. In 1820 there were but 1785 members, as over against the present 61,000. That year, Dec. 25th, was set apart by Baptists as a day of Thanksgiving, the first of January as a day of Fasting and prayer. The German St. Church, St. John, of which you are a member, was small and engaged in building its first house for the worship of God; now it has a membership of 625 and raises $3,000 annually for the furtherance of the Gospel.

My wife joins with me in wishing you a continuance of good health, and the blessing of the Lord upon your life.

Yours in Christian Fellowship,
A. GIBSON.

AESOP'S ADVERTISING FABLE

Once upon a Time there lived a Merchant Prince who inserted a small ADVERTISING Card in his local paper: "The World and His Wives rushed to the store and the Great Battle of Push and Take occurred. The Merchant Prince did such a Tremendous Business as a Result of this one Small Advertisement that He was able to Retire and Spend the rest of his Life playing at Golf.

That is a Fable!

But it still represents some folks ideas of advertising.

ADVERTISING won't make any man or firm rich over night, but if intelligently used with PERSISTENCY, it will multiply customers, increase turnover, swell profits and build such goodwill for the advertiser as nothing else will.

Get the facts from "The Weekly Monitor."
