

Ottawa who has visited the shrine of St Anne de Beaupré will make it his duty to become a subscriber to the Annals.

Wishing you every success, I remain,
Reverend Sir,

Your humble servant,
† J. THOMAS, Archb'p of Ottawa.

Charlottetown, P. E. Island, May 29, 1888.

To the Editors of the
"Annals of St Anne de Beaupré,"
Levis, Canada.

My Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 9th of May, I have pleasure in informing you that your request is cheerfully complied with, and that I would be glad to see your little book of the Annals of St Anne de Beaupré, introduced into every Catholic family of my diocese.

I remain faithfully

Your in Xto

† PETER McINTYRE,
B'p of Charlottetown.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

(From the Ave Maria)

--From the College of Levis in the Province of Quebec, comes a little pamphlet with the title ANNALS of ST ANNE DE BEAUPRÉ. St Anne, the mother of the Blessed Virgin, is one of the chief patrons of Canada, and her shrine on the banks of the St Lawrence, known as St Anne de Beaupré, is famous throughout the Dominion, many miracles having been performed there, and numberless graces dis-
