

Flotsam and Jetsam.

If Distance lends Enchantment to the View, and the View refuses to return it, will an action for damages lie?—Ex.

We give below a few odd names of cases, and, parenthetically, some thoughts suggested by them. Cockson v. Cock, Cro. Jac. 125. (Very unfilial.) Gold v. Death, Hobart, 927. (An ancient but futile struggle.) Beak v. Beak, 2 Swand, 627. (A sharp encounter.) Slack v. Sharp, 8 Ad. & E. 36. (Can plaintiff recover?) Onions v. Cheese, Lutwyche, 530. (We should think they would disagree.) Commonwealth v. 14 Hogs, 11 S. & R. 303. (Mean! Take one of your size.) Succession of Beer, 12 La. Ann. 698. (Estate in liquidation?) Gullett v. Gullett, 25 Ind. 337. (Naturally follows "Succession of Beer.") Funk v. Venus & Ex'rs of Venus, 3 Pa. (We have heard of her, but never of them.) Shirt v. Shirt, 5 Watts, 255. (This encounter was to be expected.) Beer v. Hooper, 32 Miss. 246. (Defendant can restrain plaintiff.) 651 Chests of Tea v. United States, 1 Paine, 499. (The worm will turn; was this the Boston tea?) Estate of Physic, 2 Phill. Pa. 278. (Evidently needed administering.) Matter of Pie, Abb. Pr. R. 409. (This estate must have cut up well.) Happy's Will, 4 Bibb. 553. (We have heard that he "died happy," but never before that he left a will.) Pancake v. Harris, 10 S. & R. 109. (There was probably nothing left of plaintiff at the end of this trial.)—Green Bag.

ATTENDANCE AT THE LAW SCHOOL.

This School was established on its present basis by the Law Society of Upper Canada in 1889, under the provisions of rules passed by the Society in the exercise of its statutory powers. It is conducted under the immediate supervision of the Legal Education Committee of the Society, subject to the control of the Benchers of the Society in Convocation assembled.

Its purpose is to secure as far as possible the possession of a thorough legal education by all those who enter upon the practice of the legal profession in the Province. To this end, with certain exceptions in the cases of students who had begun their studies prior to its establishment, attendance at the School, in some cases during two, and in others during three terms or sessions, is made compulsory upon all who desire to be admitted to the practice of the Law.

The course in the school is a three years' course. The term or session commences on the fourth Monday in September, and ends on the first Monday in May, with a vacation commencing on the Saturday before Christmas and ending on the Saturday after New Year's day.

Admission to the Law Society is ordinarily a condition precedent to attendance at the Law School. Every Student-at-Law and Articled Clerk before being allowed to enter the School must present to the Principal a certificate of the Secretary of the Law Society, showing that he has been duly admitted upon the books of the Society, and that he has paid the prescribed fee for the term.

Students, however, residing elsewhere, and desirous of attending the lectures of the School, but not of qualifying themselves to practise in Ontario, are allowed, upon payment of the usual fee, to attend the lectures without admission to the Law Society.

The students and clerks who are exempt from attendance at the Law School are the following:

1. All students and clerks attending in a Barrister's chambers, or serving under articles elsewhere than in Toronto, and who were admitted prior to Hilary Term, 1889, so long as they continue so to attend or serve elsewhere than in Toronto.

2. All graduates who on June 25th, 1889, had entered upon the second year of their course as Students-at-Law or Articled Clerks.

3. All non-graduates who at that date had entered upon the fourth year of their course as Students-at-Law or Articled Clerks.

Provision is made by Rules 164 (g) and 164 (h) for election to take the School course, by students and clerks who are exempt therefrom, either in whole or in part.

Attendance at the School for one or more terms, as provided by Rules 155 to 166 inclusive, is compulsory on all students and clerks not exempt as above.

A student or clerk who is required to attend the School during one term only must attend during that term which ends in the last year of his period of attendance in a Barrister's chambers or service under articles, and may present himself for his final examination at the close of such term, although his period of attendance in chambers or service under articles
