

The Home Circle.

THE DINING ROOM. Dr. Wilson says that the commonest cause of indigestion is the eating of food that is not properly prepared...

THE DAIRY.

The milk should be moved from the stable as quickly as possible after milking, while possessing its natural warmth...

THE NAMES OF THE DEAD.

We're Irish—they said we'd not fight for the Queen. Was that right? Ask for the names of the women who...

WITH THE CHILDREN.

HIS BEST GIRL. We find in the New York Recorder an interesting account of a travelling man who was seen by his companions...

ONE SISTER GOT AWAY.

"Have you any brothers or sisters?" said the teacher to the boy. "Yes, sir," was the reply. Two brothers and a sister.

WHERE SOME TOYS COME FROM.

It is said that a most profitable industry in France is the making of empty cigar boxes that are thrown away...

THE BOY THAT LAUGHS.

The happiest of boys. The boy is like a beam of joy. Although his clothes are torn, I saw him tumble on his nose...

A Related Avowal.

"You know I like you, Barbara," said John, as he stood looking at the kitchen window...

WHAT WOULD YOU DO, ALANNA?

(The following touching poem by Mrs. O'Hara was written in response to several requests from mothers bereaved of their babies.)

What would you do, Alanna, if the blessed and tangled hair was gone from your baby's pillow...

What would you do, Alanna, if the earth were presiding down on the little hands you used to kiss...

What would you do, Alanna, if every cold, cold stone against your baby's heart was crushing against your own?

What would you do, Alanna? Oh, woe is for a word or two; you are another, Alanna, and tell me what you would do tonight...

What would you do, Alanna? Oh, no, don't bid me pray—My every thought was a whispered prayer, sweet as the angels say...

What would you do, Alanna? Oh, no, don't bid me pray—My every thought was a whispered prayer, sweet as the angels say...
