

IN THE OLD DAYS

WHEN our business was young, the nightmare that haunted us was the proper care of BUTTER, hot days, oily and strong Butter and low prices. You can't do a Butter Business to-day in "any old place." That time has passed into the "has beens." To-day we have the finest Butter rooms in Canada, BAR NONE. We repeat it, the finest in this fair Dominion. We have had experts from Chicago and other places to fit it up. We have the latest improved ammonia plant that will freeze alcohol if we say so. It cost money, a lot of money, but to-day people will not risk their perishable stuff in the hands of people with an old barn and a bucket of ice. It costs no more to the shipper than the old way, and your stuff sells. If the market is weak, it will keep in good condition till it does sell. We could put 25 cars of stuff in our Butter room easily.

Consign to us either in Winnipeg or Vancouver. A complete staff of experts at both places. No "one-horse" concern is this of ours.
