

ham gave prominence to the Society, which to-day has an effective roll of 1123 members. A man of fervid zeal, he yet always avoided friction with the authorities, and similarly urged his co-workers to adopt the principle of moderation. The office of secretary, which he so ably filled, has been undertaken by Sir Robert Phayre, whose services will be gratuitously rendered.

The Rev. James Johnston, Bolton, England, has been appointed a member of the Advisory Council by the General Committee on Religious Congresses, which will be held in connection with the World's Columbian Exposition.

—Miss Emma Bradley, of Chicago, has founded a mission school at her own expense in the slums of that city. She makes her home in the rear of the school building, and shares her food with a number of poor people, and this at her own table.

—Wooster University, Ohio, exhibited its missionary enthusiasm when it gave Dr. S. H. Kellogg, a LL.D., as he was about to return to India, and sent the honorary reward of toil and scholarship, D.D., to two of its foreign missionary graduates, J. M. Kyle, of Brazil, and J. N. Wright, of Persia.

—At the Catholic Cathedral in Milwaukee, not long since, 110 children, 60 girls and 50 boys, were confirmed by Archbishop Katzer. The archbishop addressed the children on "The means of preserving the grace of confirmation," and on the following day pledges of abstinence from intoxicating liquor and tobacco were administered to the boys who the day before were confirmed.

—The Presbyterian Church, South, sends out this year 17 newly appointed missionaries, distributing them between Mexico, Brazil, the Congo, Japan, and Korea.

—The missionary work of the (German) Reformed Church in the United States has been until recently carried on under several independent boards, representing as many synods, or in certain cases unions of synods. But the process of consolidating it into a single whole, which has been going on for several months, was completed April 19th, when the last of the separate boards closed its accounts, and was incorporated with the general board.

—Rev. John Mackie, of Kingston, Ont., has received $10,000 from a gentleman of that city for the home and foreign missions of the Presbyterian Church of Canada.

South America.—Information comes that a missionary of the American Bible Society, Señor Aristides Castro, has been mobbed in Ayacucho, Peru. He had been sent to that city with six boxes of Bibles, which he tried to sell, when the inhabitants began to protest. At last he was compelled to seek refuge in his lodgings. One afternoon the house was broken into by an armed mob. Señor Castro was not found, but the stock of Bibles and his personal property were taken out into the street and publicly burned.

—In Paramaribo the work of the Moravians continues to be highly blessed. No fewer than 97 persons were at one time recently added to the communicants.

Great Britain.—A most impressive scene was recently witnessed in the committee-room of the Church Missionary Society. No fewer than 20 ladies, who had been accepted for service, were introduced to the committee. Never before have so many recruits been welcomed in one body.

—India has sent a missionary to England, Miss Soonderbai Powar, a native high caste Hindu, who comes to point out the evils of the opium traffic. She wears an Oriental costume, but speaks English fluently.
