ST. GEORGE'S PARISH GUILD

By the Rector's invitation the annual meeting of the Guild was held at the Rectory, on Jan. 31st, at 4 o'clock. There were present 55 members.

After tea and inspection of the newly decorated rooms, a business meeting was held, Mrs. Harman being in the chair.

The reports being read, a discussion was held as to doing up the Schoolhouse, etc., and it was decided to employ Mr. J. W. Knott, who for $140.00 agrees to kalsomine and varnish the room, the passage and south porch, and re-decorate the west entrance.

Miss Greening was empowered to have the notice post cards type-written or printed, and since the meeting, Mr. Crosby Street has offered to do 100 of them.

The officers for the year then resigned, the President, Mrs. Harman, and First Vice-President, Mrs. Reid, declining re-election.

The following are the officers for the year: President, Mrs. Burton; Vice-President, Mrs. H. D. P. Armstrong; Vice-President, Mrs. Jackson; Treasurers, Misses Moore and B. Ogden; Secretaries, Misses C. M. Cayley, Greening and Denison; Music Director, Miss Grace Boulton; Tea Directors, Mrs. Dalton and Miss Wyatt.

The meeting concluded with songs from Miss Maud Cowan and Master Willie da Costa, and a violin solo by Miss Hilda Boulton.

W. A. NOTES.

The W. A. resumed their meetings on Jan. 14th, and have a small but most energetic membership. Mrs. Jamieson has joined on returning to this neighborhood.

Miss Wood has been elected Second Vice-President.

The Epiphany lectures have been attended and the notes taken will be written out and read to the branch.

Mr. Lord, of Apsley, to whom we sent Xmas gifts, has written a most grateful letter of thanks.

The box to the Gordon Schools has been delayed on the way, and they are in great straits for the clothing.
