

What the Recamier Preparations are and why they are to be used.

Recamier Cream, which is first of these world famous preparations, is made from the recipe used by Julie Recamier. It is not a cosmetic, but an emollient to be applied at night just before retiring, and to be removed in the morning by bathing freely. It will remove tan and sunburn, pimples, red spots or blotches, and make your face and hands as smooth, as white and as soft as an infant's.

Recamier Balm is a beautifier, pure and simple. It is not a whitewash, and unlike most liquids Recamier Balm is exceedingly beneficial and is absolutely imperceptible except in the delicate freshness and youthfulness which it imparts to the skin.

Recamier Lotion will remove freckles and moth patches, is soothing and efficacious for any irritation of the cuticle, and is the most delightful of washes for removing the dust from the face after travelling, and is also invaluable to gentlemen to be used after shaving.

Recamier Powder is in three shades, white, flesh and cream. It is the finest powder ever manufactured, and is delightful in the nursery, for gentlemen after shaving and for the toilet generally.

Recamier soap is a perfectly pure article guaranteed free from animal fat. This soap contains many of the healing ingredients used in compounding Recamier Cream and Lotion.

The RECAMIER TOILET PREPARATIONS are positively free from all injurious ingredients, and CONTAINS NEITHER LEAD, BISMUTH or ARSENIC, as attested to after a searching analysis by such eminent scientists as

HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

All even numbered sections, excepting 8 and 26, are open for homestead and pre-emption entry.

ENTRY.

Entry may be made personally at the local land office in which the land to be taken is situate, or if the homesteader desires, he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, or the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, receive authority for some one near the local office to make the entry for him.

DUTIES.

Under the present law homestead duties may be performed in three ways:

1. Three years' cultivation and residence, during which period the settler may not be absent for more than six months in any one year without forfeiting the entry.

2. Residence for three years within two miles of the homestead quarter section and afterwards next prior to application for patent, residing for 3 months in a habitable house erected upon it. Ten acres must be broken the first year after entry, 15 acres additional in the second, and 15 in the third year; 10 acres to be in crop the second year, and 25 acres the third year.

3. A settler may reside anywhere for the first two years, in the first year breaking 5 acres, in the second cropping said 5 acres and breaking additional 10 acres, also building a habitable house. The entry is forfeited if residence is not commenced at the expiration of two years from date of entry. Thereafter the settler must reside upon and cultivate his homestead for at least six months in each year for three years.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

may be made before the local agent, any homestead inspector, or the intelligence officer at Medicine Hat or Qu'Appelle Station.

Six months' notice must be given in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands by a settler of his intention prior to making application for patent.

Intelligence offices are situate at Winnipeg, Qu'Appelle Station and Medicine Hat. Newly arrived immigrants will receive, at any of these offices, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge, free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them.

A SECOND HOMESTEAD

may be taken by any one who has received a homestead patent or a certificate of recommendation, countersigned by the Commissioner of Dominion Lands, upon application for patent made by him prior to the second day of June, 1887.

All communications having reference to lands under control of the Dominion Government, lying between the eastern boundary of Manitoba and the Pacific Coast, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, or to H. H. Smith, Commissioner of Dominion Lands, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

A. M. BURGESS,

HUMOUROUS.

THE WEARY DUDE.—Harry: Who's that passing on the other side of the street? Charley: Dear boy, you'll have to excuse me, I'm really too fatigued to look further than the middle of the street to-day.

DIDN'T SEE HIM.—Mrs. Stayathome (to Mrs. Knowitall, just returned from Europe): Did you see Irving in Faust? Mrs. Knowitall: We were only one day in Faust, and I don't think Mr. Irving was there at the time. At least we didn't see him."

TOO MUCH FOR THE HUB.—Customer (to Boston barber): What has become of that New York man you had last week? He was the best barber I ever saw. Boston Barber: Yes, he was an artist; but he persisted in saying "nex' gent" for "next gentleman," and I had to let him go.

VALID EXCUSE.—Maid: There is a poor woman at the door, mum, who wants to know if you can give her a little money to buy coal. Mistress: I'm sorry I can't do something for her, but I have just paid for the dress I wore at the charity ball last night, and it took all the money I had.

FERTILE IN EXPEDIENTS.—Paying Teller: I can't help it if your name is Malone; you can't get the money on that cheque unless you are identified. Malone: Hould a bit wid ye! Oi'll bring Jim Maginnis in an' introduce ye to him, an' begorra he kin oidentofoy us both. Phat name, sir?

RECITATION OF A CLASS IN NATURAL HISTORY.—The professor is nettled at the inattention of his pupils, and exclaims: Gentlemen, I demand your attention. I am giving you an interesting lecture on the personal peculiarities of the monkey. The least you can do is to look at me."

LADY: I like your pictures so much, and I would dearly love to be an artist. Won't you tell me the secret how to do it. Artist: Most willingly, madam. You have only to select the right colours and put them on the right place. "Oh, thanks, awfully. I shall go home now and commence right away."

FOREIGN POWER (sarcastically): Backing out, see. Uncle Sam (sorrowfully): Yes, do as you please, I won't make any resistance. Foreign Power (proudly): I knew you wouldn't dare defy me. Uncle Sam (hotly): It ain't you I'm afraid of, you old fool. I wouldn't mind a war. What I'm afraid of is the pensions.

"How is your church getting on?" asked a friend of a rigorous Scotchman, who had separated in turn from the Kirk, the Free Church, the United Presbyterian, and several lesser bodies. "Pretty weel, pretty weel. There's naebody belongs to it noo but my brother and myself, and I'm nae sure o' Sandy's soundness."

Two small sisters, whose ages were respectively five and seven, were overheard gravely discussing the pronunciation of a certain disputed word. One maiden insisted on her way, and proudly quoted as authority "Webster on the bridge." Maiden number two turned upon her sister with utmost compassion and scorn in her voice as she exclaimed: "On the bridge! Hm! It's Webster under the bridge."

A COMMERCIAL traveller came to a small town in Scotland the other day and wanted to go to church on the Sunday evening. For a companion the boots of the hotel went with him. Being late the preacher was giving out his text as they entered:—"Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?" Being disturbed by their entrance the preacher gave out his text again, when boots got up, touched his brow and said, "Please, sir, I am boots in 'The Queen's,' and this is a vinegar traveller from Birmingham."

COURTLY ADROITNESS.—The Duke of Grammont was the most adroit and witty courtier of his time. He entered one day the closet of Cardinal Mazarin without being announced. His Eminence was amusing himself by jumping close-legged against the wall. A less skilful courtier might have stammered excuses and retired. The Duke entered briskly and cried, "I'll wager one hundred crowns that I jump higher than your Eminence." Grammont took care to jump a few inches lower than the Cardinal, and was six months afterwards Marshal of France.
