

With the fine thrift that marks the management of the Government Treasury in some directions every officer is obliged to contribute a certain percentage of his salary,—no matter how small that salary may be,—toward the Superannuation Fund, as long as he holds his position. In many cases the official even never reaps the benefit of what he has long given his quota to maintain, death finding him still in harness, or a change of government removes him from office, and so his contribution has been a loss to him, and one to be felt if he has been many years in the service. It certainly seems neither right nor just, and is a small business, in the opinion of thinkers, to make any such demands upon salaries far too meagre in these days of the exaggerated cost of living, even if in the plainest style; demands made by a government that can deal in millions, under some conditions, and considerations.

Then there is the case of the widow: she, equally with her husband, has struggled through their young days, bringing up their sons

YOUR LITTLE ONES REQUIRE PURE WATER

Fathers and Mothers should remember that their children really require plenty of good safe drinking water. Give your little ones a glass before breakfast, and as much as they want all day long—then you will see the bloom on their cheeks and the sparkle of health in their eyes.

Tally Ho Water always reported by an eminent bacteriologist
"Absolutely Pure."
