

5. In countries where certain telecommunication services are performed by private enterprises recognized by the Governments, the above-mentioned undertakings are given by the private enterprises.

ARTICLE 26

Stoppage of Telecommunication

1. The Contracting Governments reserve to themselves the right to stop the transmission of any private telegram or radiotelegram which may appear dangerous to the security of the State, or contrary to the laws of the country, to public order or decency, subject to the obligation to notify the office of origin immediately of the stoppage of the said communication or any part of it, except when the issue of such notification may appear dangerous to the security of the State.

2. The Contracting Governments also reserve to themselves the right to cut off any private telephone conversation which may appear dangerous to the security of the State, or contrary to the laws of the country, to public order or decency.

ARTICLE 27

Suspension of Service

Each Contracting Government reserves to itself the right to suspend the international telecommunication service for an indefinite time, if it considers it necessary, either generally or only in certain relations and/or for certain kinds of correspondence, subject to the obligation to notify immediately each of the other Contracting Governments through the medium of the Bureau of the Union.

ARTICLE 28

Investigation of Infringements

The Contracting Governments undertake to furnish information to one another in respect of breaches of the provisions of the present Convention and of the sets of Regulations which they accept, in order to facilitate their further action.

ARTICLE 29

Charges and Free Services

The provisions regarding charges for telecommunication and the various cases in which free services are accorded are set out in the Regulations annexed to the present Convention.

ARTICLE 30

Priority of Transmission of Government Telegrams and Radiotelegrams

In transmission Government telegrams and radiotelegrams have priority over other telegrams and radiotelegrams except where the sender declares that he renounces this right to priority.
