

e) to consult concerning problems which may arise in the course of the development of economic and trade relations including industrial cooperation between the two countries.

3. The Mixed Commission may submit to the Contracting Parties reports relating to the above-mentioned matters.

4. The Mixed Commission shall meet on a regular basis alternately in Canada and the Czechoslovak Socialist Republic at mutually agreed dates.

5. Between the regular meetings of the Mixed Commission the Contracting Parties shall, on the initiative of either of them, conduct consultations through their representatives on matters of particular importance to

a) the implementation of the present Agreement or of agreements related to it;

b) the development of economic and trade relations including industrial cooperation between the two countries.

ARTICLE VII

This Agreement shall enter into force on signature and shall remain in force for a period of ten years. Not less than six months prior to the expiry of the said ten-year period, the Contracting Parties shall agree upon measures necessary to continue economic and industrial cooperation between their two countries. The present Agreement may be amended by mutual agreement of both Governments.

ARTICLE VIII

In the event of termination of this Agreement all obligations or undertakings arising from contracts and other commercial, economic and industrial co-operation arrangements entered into during the period the Agreement was in force shall be fulfilled in accordance with their terms.
