

ARTICLE VI

The Commission, its assets, income, and other property shall be:

- (a) exempt from all direct taxes except for charges for public utility services;
- (b) exempt from customs duties in respect of articles imported or exported by the Commission in the furtherance of its function; articles imported under such exemption shall not be sold or disposed of in Canada except under conditions agreed to by the Government of Canada; and,
- (c) exempt from any prohibition or restriction on import, export or sale of its publications, and exempt from customs duties and excise taxes in respect thereof.

ARTICLE VII

The Commission shall enjoy in the territory of Canada for its official communications, in whatever form, treatment not less favourable than that accorded by the Government of Canada to any foreign state, including its diplomatic missions.

ARTICLE VIII*THE COUNCIL

All Members of the Council shall, while exercising their functions and during their journeys to and from the place of meeting, enjoy in Canada privileges and immunities comparable to the privileges and immunities accorded to diplomatic representatives in Canada under the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations.
