ENEMY ALIENS—DEPORTATION AT CONCLUSION OF HOSTILITIES

Mr. DIEFENBAKER:

1. Are all enemy aliens who have been interned during the war subject to deportation at the conclusion of hostilities? If not, in what cases is deportation not applicable?
2. Are all Italian prisoners of war in Canada subject to compulsory return to their homeland after the war?

Mr. CRERAR:

1. No. Interned persons of enemy citizenship who are legal residents of Canada by virtue of having been landed in Canada within the meaning of the Immigration Act are not subject to deportation on the grounds of internment.

2. There are none in Canada.

CANOL PROJECT—HANS WILHELM ROHL

Mr. KNOWLES:

1. Have any contracts in connection with the Canol project been awarded to Hans Wilhelm Rohl, or to any firm of which he is the head?
2. If so, when, for what, and in what amounts?

Mr. CRERAR:

1. Not by the dominion government.
2. Answered by No. 1.

RETURNS

UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE COMMISSION—
JAMES MCGREGOR

Mr. FRASER (Peterborough West):

1. Has the civil service appointment of James McGregor, an employee of the unemployment insurance commission, been made permanent by the civil service commission?
2. If so, why has this been done in view of the restriction on permanent appointments in the civil service during wartime?
3. Is the said James McGregor a war veteran, and what was the date of his first appointment to the civil service?

Mr. McLARTY: Return tabled.

FREDERICK ROBERT (OR FRITZ) STAMPE

Mr. FRASER (Peterborough West):

1. Is Frederick Robert (or Fritz) Stampe employed, or has he been employed recently, by the unemployment insurance commission or the Department of Labour?
2. Is this man a naturalized Canadian or a British subject, and what is the place of his birth?
3. If employed by the unemployment insurance commission or the Department of Labour, has his appointment been concurred in by the civil service commission?
4. If so, is the civil service commission satisfied that Stampe was legally qualified to sit for the necessary examination?
5. Is the civil service commission aware of any misstatements made by Stampe with regard to the place of his birth and his status as a Canadian or British subject, and, if so, what steps have been taken in connection therewith?
6. Is it proposed to appoint Stampe to any other position within the civil service of Canada?

Mr. McLARTY: Return tabled.
