Dear Sir,-

The successful tour made by some American College men to these parts last year prompts me as a Canadian to offer you some facilities free, to encourage our young people to also tour these historic and romantic isles. Sir Edward Beatty knows of my place and might feel like assisting you towards the obtaining of "special" ocean rates.

I would be very glad to offer free Camp sites to small parties of say 6 to 10 who would bring their own camping equipment such as Bell Tents, Camp Cots, Blankets, and sheets and a Coleman stove or two. I would personally arrange for their meals at a rate of $1.⁰⁰ each per day and this would include supplying two servants and water.

This Island is somewhat off the beaten track and so is very quiet but has no snakes - is never too hot and is very dry, thus making it ideal for camping.
