

Force had arranged to take a special course with me this autumn and I have written to see whether he wishes to change his plan in view of my illness.

I see from your letter that you have been appointed Dean of the Faculty, please accept my best-wishes and believe me

Yours very sincerely
Alfred Stimpfield