

Both Christians and Hebrews have judged Mahomet to be a false prophet, and the Koran a mere human composition.

And Christians have judged that the Jews are in opposition to the Divine will, in rejecting Jesus as Christ, and the Saviour of the world.

These three Religions now subsist together in the world, and the manifestations of each of them may be noted and observed.