

CONTENTS.

xi

	PAGE.		PAGE.
No object in undue pretensions		Lippincott claimed by Washington	171
as to north-east boundary . . .	152	Refused by Clinton . . .	171
They became the claim of after		Lots drawn by British prisoners .	171
years	152	Fell on captain Asgill to be
Strachey obtains boundary at the		hanged	171
river Saint Croix	153	Intervention of the French . .	172
The boundary between Nova		Asgill set at liberty	172
Scotia and French Acadia . . .	153	Articles IV. V. VI. of treaty .	173
Commission of 1749	153	Their non-observance by the
Identification of the Saint Croix .	154	United States	173
Penobscot considered boundary of		The western posts consequently
Nova Scotia	154	withheld	173
The boundary of 1764	155	Other conditions of treaty . .	174
Commissioners of 1796 to deter-		The deplorable Ashburton treaty	176
mine Saint Croix	156	Definitive treaty of Paris, 3rd of
Select the tributary branch		Sept., 1783	177
Chiputneticook.	156	The international boundary by the
"North-west angle"	157	river Saint Lawrence . . .	180
Map communicated to de Vergennes by Franklin	157
Discovered in Paris by Jared
Sparks	158
Concedes more than demanded by
Great Britain	158
Present boundary, monument of folly on the part of Great Britain	158
The fishery question	159
Newfoundland	160
Concessions to France	161
The royal declaration	163
CHAPTER III.
[1782-1783.]
Claims of the loyalists	164
Refused	165
Dissatisfaction with Oswald . . .	165
Clauses in their favour	165
United States commissioners in a
dilemma	166
Condition of affairs United States	167
Claims of Great Britain acceded to	167
Treaty signed with United States
without regard to France . . .	167
The proceedings examined	168
An unsolved problem	169
Hanging of Huddy in retaliation .	170
		CHAPTER IV.
		[1783-1784.]
		Demand of transfer of posts by
		Steuben refused	185
		Fish's application on the part of
		New York	186
		Correspondence between Knox
		and Haldimand	187
		Application by colonel Hull . .	187
		Demand by Chittenden	187
		The fur trade	189
		Frobisher suggests another route
		westward from lake Superior	190
		Exploration of lake Huron . .	191
		Allsopp suspended as a member
		of council	191
		Opposition to the Quebec act .	191
		The Quebec act considered . .	192
		Petitions for its repeal	193
		Census of 1784	194
		Prosperous condition of the French
		Canadians	195
		False views of the climate of
		Canada	196
		A house of assembly proposed .	197
		Condition of fortifications Quebec	198
		Livius to receive only half his salary when absent	198