

versy is reviewed most ably by Justin Winsor, in the fourth volume of the new Narrative and Critical History of America, and he shows the utter insufficiency of Murphy's objections. This review should be carefully read by the student. See also De Costa's Verrazzano the Explorer, containing an exhaustive bibliography of the subject, Prof. Geo. W. Greene's essay on Verrazzano in the North American Review for October, 1837, etc.

The fourth volume of the Narrative and Critical History of America bears the sub-title of French Explorations and Settlements in North America, to which subject almost the entire volume is devoted. It is an inexhaustible mine of information, to which the more careful student should constantly go in connection with almost all of the lectures on America and France. There is a chapter devoted to Jacques Cartier, the next important Frenchman in America, and very much about Champlain. Verrazzano, Cartier and Champlain are also all most interestingly treated by Parkman, in his Pioneers of France in the New World. Champlain's own writings, which have been carefully edited by Rev. Edmund F. Slafter, should be consulted.
