

INDEX

- Halifax, 190.
 Uniaque House secretion, 190.
 5, 425.
 1 Derby,
 ward the 39, 170.
 ion, 417.
 les in the 1consfield,
 1851 for 1ion, 270;
 271, 324.
 85.
 Johnstone's w Bruns- 107, 208.
 318.
 9, 183; his Brunswick 6; Colonial aster, 267,
 o him by ature, De- 76, 77, 81, 171, 501.
 n Ontario,
 increase in 143, 140.
 m Portland sketch of 164.
 364.
 he Colonies, Harvey, 199, nsible gov- 37; on railch on college 1sociation in 1de governor 1Halifax, 190; Government, 193, 194; in- 1tim to Howe, 194; failure 1his followers,
 . N., 314, 324.
 1, 264.
 General, 335,
 50, 51.
 Hincks, Sir Francis, 229, 231; reply to Howe's argument for the organization of the empire, 264, 585.
 Holmes, Mr., on committee to present address to Earl of Elgin, 198.
 Horton Academy, Founding of, 51, 148.
 Howe, John, father of Joseph Howe, 33, 53.
 Howe, Joseph—
 Judge Longley's Life of, 41.
 chief opponent of J. W. Johnstone, 53. reported doings of House in his paper, 55.
 successful defence of himself in a libel suit before the Supreme Court, 56, 57.
 elected member of the House of Assembly, 62. letter to Mr. Chapman, 63.
 reply to Colonial Secretary, 81.
 views on change in Executive Council, 82, 84.
 attitude toward Confederation in 1839, 113.
 life from 1838 to 1840, 114.
 demand upon Sir Colin Campbell for Executive Assembly, 114.
 patriotism, 114, 115.
 an Imperialist, 115.
 lack of prescience and ability, 116.
 his exclusion of himself from leadership, 120.
 his course in 1840, 120.
 member of committee to meet Charles Poulett Thompson, 122.
 admitted member of Executive Council, 123.
 social standing, 124.
 member of new Executive Council, 126.
 drove Sir Colin Campbell from the country, 128.
 elected Speaker of the House, 129.
 conspiracy formed against him, 129.
 opposition of his own party, 129, 130.
 what he said in debate when House was in committee on subject of the Executive originating money votes, 131.
 his account of what awaited him in the Coalition Government, 132.
 his associates in the Coalition Cabinet, 132, 133.
 ancestral element, 134.
 responsive to progress of the times, 137, 138.
 addressed committee of the Assembly on free schools, 138.
 felt intellectual influence in N. S., 140.
 he separates from Mr. Johnstone, 141.
 an orator, 143.
 speaks at Detroit, 144, 145.
 speaks at immigration meeting in London, England, 146.
 power to sway popular assemblies, 147.
 resigned speakership, 148.
 college policy, 149.
 his egotism and ingratitude, 151.
 speaks on college question at Yarmouth in 1843, 158.
 speaks on college question in Mason Hall, Halifax, 159.
 Howe, Joseph—(Continued).
 met Dr. Crawley in joint educational meeting, 160.
 reasons for his one-college scheme, 164.
 political collision with Johnstone, 165.
 change of view on college question, 170.
 his account of his trials in Coalition Government, 172, 173.
 resigned his seat in Coalition Cabinet, 173.
 quarrel with Lord Falkland, 174, 179.
 his statement of relation of Liberal party to Lord Falkland, 175.
 return to editorial work, 176, 177.
 samples of his rhymes, 178.
 no justification for his college venture, 182.
 view on religion in higher education, 184.
 his democracy, 192.
 his account of the landing of Lord Elgin in Halifax, 197.
 on committee to present address to Lord Elgin, 198.
 appreciation of Johnstone's moral worth, 211.
 Provincial Secretary, 211.
 on intercolonial railroads, 216, 217.
 delegate to England to secure aid in building railroads in N. S., 219.
 extracts from address at Southampton, Eng., 220, 221. return to Halifax in 1851, 223.
 speech at railway meeting in Halifax, 223-225.
 addressed public meeting in Amherst, N.S., and St. John, N.B., in 1851, 225.
 elected in Cumberland by acclamation in 1851, 225.
 issue between him and his opponents, 225.
 one of railway delegation which met at Toronto, 226.
 speech at Quebec, 227.
 blow to his railway scheme, 229.
 extract from speech at Boston celebration in 1851, 229.
 history of his railway work from 1850, 231-233.
 went to England in 1852 to examine proposals of railway companies, 235.
 chairman of railway commission, 236.
 sample of his oratory in the House of Assembly, 241, 242.
 speech on "Organization of the Empire," 260-266.
 unelected in Cumberland, 271.
 defeated in Cumberland in 1855, 273.
 elected for Hants in 1857, 285.
 trouble in New York, where he went to enlist recruits for Crimean War, 286.
 his arraignment of the Roman Catholic Church, 287.
 attack on the Baptists, 287.
 speech on civil and religious liberty, 290-292.
 Provincial Secretary, 304.
 coquets with the Catholics, 304.
 beginning of his political downfall, 305.