Salary Advances. The salary advances included Arthur Howell to $1,750 and W. H. Rutherford to $2,500.

The technical school salaries for last year totalled $66,555. This year they will aggregate $78,520.

On the committee being informed by Trustee Miles Vokes that complaints had been made respecting the quality of the work at the new Central Technical School a sub-committee was appointed to investigate. A proposed increase of $50 a month to the clerk of works was laid over until the committee had reported.

Contractor Pays Low.

The attention of the committee was called by Member Stevenson to the discrepancy between the rate of 37 cents an hour paid to structural steel workers at the Central Technica building, and the union rate, which was 45 cents. The contractor will be called upon to explain as his contract calls for "the prevailing rate."
