SACRED VESSELS STOLEN FROM BAPTIST CHURCH

An epidemic of petty thieving from Baptist churches reached its climax this week when a Baptist altar communion set was stolen.

As none of the locks or window fastenings had been tampered with, the caretaker did not suspect anything, and the pastor, Rev. W. F. Roadhouse, was amazed to find the communion set missing when he returned from Petawawa on Monday. The church has no basement and it is thought that the burglars must have got in underneath some way.

The police have been notified, and the church officials are offering a reward for information leading to the recovery of the articles.

This movement attracts the attention of the passers-by, and still further attraction is caused by employing small figures of men or others of an amusing character which go thru irregular evolutions around the cylinder. Small steel balls with flags stuck in them are found among the best for this use.
