

The CHAIRMAN.—Is there anyone else who would like to say anything in regard to the Bill? If so we will be glad to hear them?

Mr. JOHN R. REID.—As president of the Life Underwriters' Association I desire to express my very great appreciation of the courtesy which has been extended to our representatives. We appreciate very much the opportunity which has been afforded us to express our views upon the Bill from the managers' point of view.

Hon. Mr. FIELDING.—If no other gentlemen wish to make any remarks in reference to the Bill we may lay it aside for a little while and in the meantime the members of the committee will have an opportunity of thinking it over and the officers of the Insurance Department will give consideration to all that has been said. At a later stage the consideration of the Bill can be taken up by the committee.

The committee adjourned.
