AB ORMSBY KING & DUFFERIN

Great enthusiasm is being manifested in the big Blue Cross Field Ambulance matinee, which is to be held at Dufferin Park on Friday next. All the horsemen are anxious to further the good cause, and it is doubtful if better harness racing will be seen this season than will be put on for that date. All the horses in training for the coming summer campaign are much further advanced this season than in previous years, and in nearly every case horses are ready now to go the race.

The following are the classes, and there may be some additions later on:

Classified Trot—Alec D. chm. Geo. B. Hanco, Toronto, (J. Fleming).

Classified Pace—Grand Opera, 2:05 1/4, b.h., Brownlee and Moore, Ottawa, Ontario, (F. Westbrook).

PLATE CANDIDATES GIVEN FINAL PREPS

Pepper Sauce and Lady Curzon Show Best Form of the Day—Training Notes.

Several of the guinea candidates were given their final work over the full plate route at the Woodbine yesterday morning. The weather was quite chilly and the track could hardly be termed fast.

Charles Crew's brother, Caper Sauce, Pepper Sauce, covered the distance in the best time yesterday. He worked the mile and one-quarter in 2:11 1/2.

Pepper Sauce and Lady Curzon were the best of the day. They were both in excellent shape and showed their best form.
