May Sutton, Expert Tennis Player, Has Remarkable Record

For more than a decade May Sutton has dominated the U. S. tennis world. For three years, household duties and two chubby sons of Tom Bundy occupied her time, bu. her shadow continually was thrown across the courts of all great matches, and now she is back, wielding the racquet with the same old wizardry. It was in 1901 that as a 13-year-old girlical circles, according to Dr. Friedding, before the war, was averse to territorial acquisitions, the conviction being the women's championship of the Pacific to the Danube in any future war, but that it is uncertain what attitude the Vienna Government will take.

German Writers Think Hapsburgs Have Enough for Own. Good.

BERLIN, via London, Dec. 7 .-Serbia's future status, which is the in Austria but in Germany, is discussed today in a noteworthy article in The Vossische Zeitung by the wellknown Viennese political writer. Dr. Friedhing.

Dr. Friedjung regards it as a settled matter in view of the utterances of Bulgarian statesmen that Bulgaria will retain not only eastern Serbia redominantly Bulgarian populations Danube, giving a common frontier to Hungary and Bulgaria. Moreover, the writer says, Austria will be unable to renounce certain frontier regulations. The Austran military authorities, he says, demand head in order to avoid another bloody
