

ARTICLE X.

Residents of Montreal and vicinity shall only be admitted as the guests of and when accompanied by a member, who shall enter names and dates without fail in the Visitors Book. If in the opinion of the Committee this privilege is abused, they may take such action and make such regulations as they consider advisable to secure the use of the rooms for the members only.

ARTICLE XI.

The Committee shall meet upon the first Wednesday of each month, and at such other times as to them appear best, and shall have full power to make such House Rules and Regulations as they may think necessary for the comfort of the members or the good order of the rooms.

ARTICLE XII.

That in case of ill conduct on the part of any member, the Committee shall request his resignation, and if necessary call a full meeting of the Club for further action.

ARTICLE XIII.

This constitution may be altered or amended at any General Annual Meeting or at a special meeting of the Club called by the President on the written requisition of twenty members, provided in either case that full description of the proposed change is given in the notice of said meeting.
