Lives With Steel in Brain.

Middletown, N.Y., Aug. 29.—Little Grace Menet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Menet, of New York City, thru whose brain a three and a half foot bar was driven on Thursday last, is still alive in Thrall Hospital here. The physicians of the city regard the case as one of the most remarkable on record. The steel bar, falling thirty feet, struck the girl directly on top of the head, point first, and passed thru the brain to the base of the skull. The little girl's parents have sat by her bedside for the past forty-eight hours.

London, Aug. 29.—In his sermon yesterday Rev. Rector McKay of St. Andrew's asked: Is the lake of material fire, believed in by our fathers and grandfathers, to be the fate of the sinner? No. If we do not believe this, have we got rid of hell yet? Evidently there is more to fear, I believe, in the existence of a hell which is infinitely worse than an eternal burning. Even in this world of ours there are palpable results of sin. A lame back, shattered nerves, all the maladies known to medical science exist as a result of to medical science exist as a result of personal sin.
