HERE'S A ROTHESAY BABY
LOOKING FOR THAT PRIZE

Send Along Your Pictures.

Master George William Clifford Kirkpatrick, Aged 20 Months
 Not only are the parents of pretty babies in St. John interested in this Borden Baby Contest, being conducted through the Times, but the fond parents of out-of-town babies are equally interested.
 The baby in the picture, Master George William Clifford Kirkpatrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kirkpatrick, of Rothesay, was born on June 27th, 1907, and weighs 28 lbs.
 Is not Master George the picture of health? The parents who have pretty babies should take advantage of this charming weather, and have baby's photo taken at Ebb's studio on Charlotte street, free of charge.
 Comply with the very simple conditions which are pointed elsewhere in this issue, and send the baby's photo to the Contest Editor of the Times. You may be the proud parents of the prettiest baby in New Brunswick, is not that distinction a great honor, besides, the $10 in gold with which to start baby's bank account.
 Remember the Contest closes on March 29th.

MATCH WAS NOT PLAYED

Thistle Curlers Claim They Were Not Properly Treated by Three St. Andrews Skips Over McCaffrey Cup Match

If the members of the Thistle Curling Club, who went to St. Andrew's rink last night, to play in the match for the McCaffrey cup, could get the three St. Andrew's skips, who refused to go on with the match, into a dark corner there would be something doing. The Thistles went to St. Andrew's rink to play. The thermometer stood at thirty, and outside the temperature was going down. The ice was in splendid condition. But the three St. Andrew's skips declared it wasn't. They refused to play. The Thistles pointed out that it was considered good curling ice when the thermometer was up to 34. They offered to go on with the game, and if the ice went bad to call it off, and they would let the St. Andrew's skips be the judges. This proposition was rejected. Then they offered to play until the mercury rose to 33, and if it did, to call the game off. But this also was rejected, and they were compelled to abandon the match. A few of them remained and joined in a friendly game, and the ice got better all the time.
 It is alleged, whether correctly or not, that the St. Andrew's skips were much opposed to the ladies playing on the ice in the afternoon, and that as the ladies played yesterday, the fact had some bearing on the attitude of the three skips last night. At all events, the frost is all thawed off the harbor, and it may soon be on fire.

MR. DAWSON IS GRATEFUL
