THE EVENING TIMES AND STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., FRIDAY, APRIL 23, 1920

TOMORROW

Saturday Promises to Be the Biggest, Busiest and Positively the Last Day of the "Anniversary Celebration."

Each day has been gathering impetus and this, the final windup, has still bountiful stocks to choose from. Remember everything is marked on a generous profit-sharing basis for just this anniversary period. Every opportunity to save money is valuable at this time, so do not miss coming tomorrow, the last day. London House, Daniel, Head King street.

SERVICEABLE TRUNKS
AT REDUCED PRICES.
Oak Hall has a special lot of trunks that were received in slightly damaged condition. Rather than return these to the manufacturers, they are offering them to their customers at very special reductions. This has just happened at an opportune time with moving day at hand and many preparing to go to their country homes. Saturday will be the last selling day of these trunks, so one should not hesitate in taking advantage of it now.

The three-masted schooner Samuel Castner, Jr., Capt. T. W. Clark, is reported a total loss on Swan's Island, Me. She left here last Saturday for New York.

JAIL PRISONERS TO REPAIR ROADS

Lincoln County Council in Ontario Decides to Put Them to Work.

St. Catharines, April 23.—The County of Lincoln has decided no longer to maintain its inventory guests in blissful idleness. At the suggestion of Dr. Chamberlain, the provincial prison inspector, the county council has decided to put all fit prisoners serving terms in the county jail at work on the country roads. This may act as a deterrent to wrong-doing, as a man may not think much of serving a month or two inside stone walls where no one will see him, but if he has to go out on the public highway in his striped suit where he runs a risk of being seen by the very people he is most anxious to avoid under such circumstances, the penalty for his wrong doing will be double punishment.

That is not the way the county councillors view the thing, however. They take the practical ground that the prisoner by honest toil is paying the county for his board and lodging, which will result in considerable saving to the county. The plan, however, is scarcely likely to result in any great amount of road building being done, as there are very few prisoners in the county jail, especially in summer, when they could be doing work on the roads. Most prisoners are sent to the provincial prisoners farms, and only short terms, in for a month or so, are kept in the county jail. If magistrates sent six months' or year men to the county jail instead of to the farm, considerable benefit might be derived by the county, and it is probable magistrates will be asked to do this.
