To Place Thursday's Drive Over the Top. $25,000 is the Objective. The Charlettetown Rotary Club Has Challenged President Patterson. Rotarian Workers to Dine at the Citadel This Evening

Below will be found just a few preliminary subscriptions handed in at Below will be found just a few preliminary subscriptions handed in at the Rotary Executive meeting last evening. A continuation of this giving today, together with the drive tomorrow and the so-called supplementary drive or tag day Saturday, will, it is hoped, bring the $25,000 desired. But it will require every possible exertion on the part of all interested, and nothing will defeat the object quicker than overconfidence. The Rotarian workers will dine at the Citadel this evening and be given last minute instructions by Campaign Manager Loose All the collectors, both men and women, are to report tomorrow morning at 8.40 at the Salvation Army Headquarteds, 64 Prince William street, and will be allotted their districts then.
