plendid Performance of Bright and Tuneful Light Opera-A Gredit to Producer and Performers—Deserves Full House

The forty or fifty young ladies and utlemen who took part in the amateur oduction, The Mascot, presented in York Theatre last evening, showed at their two months of careful prepation had not gone for nothing and ose who were present witnessed one the finest and most complete amateur oductions that has been seen yet on local boards. The piece was bright d catchy and the cast entered into spirit of the plot with action and rels by her fine impersonation of tmetta, and received hearty applause h for her singing and acting. As the entric Prince Lorenzo, Albert F. ding was both clever and amusing, i showed himself possessed of a voice fine quality. Frank Wry, full of life i action, at once become a favorite, his singing showed an excellent e, well controlled.

The comedy work of George Duplisea, Rocco the Farmer, presented him in ongenial role, and to better advantage plus has even before here accounted.
