No Excuse For Great Britain Being Involved in it Either is Stand
Taken by Some Local Women

While the men of Canada are enlisting for foreign service and for home defence, and the women of the country are actively engaged in work on behalf of those who are to fight the battle of the Empire, it may come as a surprise to many to learn that this spirit is not unanimous. Collectors for the women's hospital ship fund were astonished when their request for a twenty-five ent conduct the memorial exercises at Fernich Holdes, a woman prominent in many lines of activity in the city, said that she could not contribute because she din on approve either of the war itself or of Canada's participation in it.

"There is no excuse for Great filles when their request for a twenty-five ent conduct the memorial exercises at Fernich Holdes, a woman prominent in many lines of activity in the city, said that she could not contribute because she din on approve either of the war itself or of Canada's participation in it.

"There is no excuse for Great filles when their requested for the reason one of the Church of England Burying ground, Cedar Hill and in various parts of the province to of Canada's participation in it.

"There is no excuse for Great filles which points former members had removed and died."

A noticeable and very important feature of the street car service was inaugurated yesterday when car No. 102 appeared equipped with the new electric sign. Last evening much favorable comment was heard as persons crossing the bridge were able to see the destination of the car before they were actually within three feet of it. The car has also been newly painted and Tungsten lights installed.

CAR OFF TRACK CAR OFF TRACK
About noon today passengers in a street car coming from North End towards the city were startled when it ran off the track when turning the corner of Main into Mill street. The car kept going for a short distance. The motorman brought it to a stop soon, however, for it was not going fast. Traffic was blocked for a little while.

FAIRVILLE NEWS

The Bridge Work — Personal — Street Railway Service Improvement

The work on the new bridge continues to draw the attention of passers by from the Suspension Bridge and other ventage points. The spans are being rapidly placed and riveted. The latter occupation is very hazardous, at such a height and with the raging waters beneath.

Miss Lou Sime, now of Boston, arrived yesterday and will enjoy several weeks' vacation with her parents, residing in Manawagonish road.

Miss Lena Ferris, graduate nurse, of Hartford, Conn., and her sister, Miss Greta Ferris in training at Hartford Hospital, are spending a few weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ferris, Milford.

A noticeable and very important feature of the street car service was inaugurated yesterday when car No. 102 one. shot from the window to scare him away. Mrs. Young and Miss Young gave their evidence again this morning.
