

come to me that ye might have life." In all departments of Christian work there are plenty of causes for discouragement, if we are seeking human approval, or human gratitude. If we think the proportion of those who really reform is small compared with the number of those we have under our care, let us remember that our Divine Lord and Example is touched with us in all our feeling of discouragement at human ingratitude and sin. He, the great Healer, with a deeper sadness than ever our hearts can know, had reason to say, "Were there not ten cleansed, but where are the nine?"
