THE ZURICH CONFERENCE.

The Montreux official announces, that on the 17th, a treaty of peace was signed at Zurich between France and Austria.

Referring to the contemplated European Congress, the Paris correspondence of the London Times says: "The Powers will meet, viz.:—Sardinia, Spain, Sweden, Portugal, Naples and Rome and the five great Powers."

The London Post says that preliminary negotiations for a Congress are daily going on, it being much easier to plan a Congress than to complete the necessary preliminaries. England is pledged to enter no Congress unless the independence and free action of Central Italy are understood to be guaranteed.

It is understood that the question of the Lombardy debt was left to the arbitration of the King of the Belgians.

The Times of this morning states that the terms of the Zurich treaty are almost identical with those agreed to at Villa Franca, and that peace as one of the questions which distinguished Italy and Europe, seems settled.

The Morning Post says, that, assuming the information to be correct, the further proposals concerning the questions left upon which it is proposed to submit to the approval of the Congress, are of such a nature that the diplomatics at Zurich have only to be satisfied with the result.

Central India is still unsettled. The frontier districts of Nepal are occupied by the Nawa and his followers.

The Waghers are still in insurrection, and a force was to be sent against them.

Exchange at Bombay is a 6s 7-8d. Imports continued active, but a fall in price was anticipated. Exports quiet. Freight without improvement.

The authorities at Peking are represented to be ready to receive the British Minister in a friendly manner. Meanwhile the Indian government had been applied to for 15,000 troops for China, and two regiments were under orders to depart.

THE TREATY OF PEACE.

A Zurich telegram of the 18th says: "The principal points of the Treaty of Peace between France and Austria have been signed by the plenipotentiaries, but not ratified by the two governments. They are as follows:—Austria gives up Lombardy, except Mantua, Peschiera, and as far as the frontier line, fixed by the special commission, to France, who transfers it to Piedmont. The pensions acquired in Lombardy are to be paid by the new government.—Piedmont to pay Austria forty million of florins."

It will be seen from the above that the treaty is merely an amplification of the Villa Franca agreement.

A Zurich telegram of the 21st announces that Count Colloredo was that morning attacked with apoplexy; four physicians were attending him, but there were little hopes of his recovery.

PROJECTED CONGRESS.

The Paris Pays intimates, of its own knowledge, that in a Congress accepted in principle by the English government, the only Powers to be represented, besides the great ones, will be Piedmont and the Pope, and Naples under certain eventualities.

Admission of Spain might be natural, but Sweden and Portugal have no claim.

Independence Belge says, out of compliment to Napoleon, Austria proposed that Congress should sit in Paris, but this was declined, and England taking part in Congress was being canvassed by the press and generally arguments were against it.

The London Times and Herald are both adverse to England joining any European Congress on Italian affairs.

BRITAIN.

The Directors of the Great Eastern held a meeting on board on the 19th, and it is authoritatively announced that the departure of the vessel for America has been postponed Sine die, and orders given that all passage-money received be returned. No time will be fixed for the transatlantic voyage until good progress has been made in fitting out the ship in thorough sea-going completeness, and according to some authorities there is no likelihood of the voyage being made before next Spring. The ship would remain at Holyhead about ten days longer, and then go to Southampton to complete her fittings, after which a trip to Lisbon is spoken of. It is stated that in her present condition the Directors will not accept the ship from Scott Russell.

FRANCE.

Reported that Emperor refused granting audience to deputation from Bologna, but had received those from Duches.

Bourges full and declining; rentes closed heavy on 21st at 69 65.

Projected China expedition had been discussed in Council of Ministers; proposed to dispatch eighteen thousand men, but nothing definite arrived at; troops not to leave before end of year.

ITALY.

Marshal Vailanti is reported having written to Napoleon, suggesting the occupation be responsible for three fifths of the debt of Monte-Lombardo Venetia, making the debt in all transferred to Sardinia, two hundred and fifty million of francs. The two contracting Powers will unite their efforts in order that the reform in the Administration should be carried out by the Pope.

The rights of the Dukes of Tuscany, Modena, and Parma are expressly reserved. The two Emperors will assist with all their power the formation of a Confederation.—The ratifications are to be exchanged at Zurich of the Duchies by French troops to prevent a civil war breaking out.

The Neapolitan Army on the Roman frontier was increasing, and it was rumored that the Neapolitan troops had landed at Ancona.

A considerable excitement prevailed in Piedmont on account of the conditions of the Zurich Treaty.

The King of Sardinia, in receiving the deputation from the Municipality of Genoa, reiterated his intention to defend the cause of Italian independence to the utmost of his power. He expressed a hope that wishes of Italy would be granted.

The Paris correspondent of the London Herald says that the object of the Sardinian Minister of Foreign Affairs in visiting Paris is to obtain the Emperor's consent, pending the occupation of Central Italy by the Piedmontese troops, and the appointment of Prince Carignano as Regent of the Duchies and Legations.

The Communal Council of Milan has voted one hundred thousand francs towards Garibaldi's subscription for the purchase of muskets.

It was reported at Turin that in consequence of Neapolitan war ships having been signalled in a hostile attitude off the Coast of Romagna, a Piedmontese squadron had been ordered round into the Adriatic.

It is asserted that there has been an insurrectionary movement in Palermo, but it was suppressed. One story says that a hundred and fifty rebels were killed, but it lacks confirmation.

Justice continued to be energetically carried out in Parma. New arrests had taken place. The Municipality determined on the destruction of the Column on which the head of Anelli was placed.

It was expected that the effective strength of the new Sardinian Army will be 100,000 men, exclusive of rifle corps and Military Marine. In addition, there will be through-out the Kingdom about six hundred thousand National guards. The financial affairs of Naples are represented as critical, and a loan of six millions stg. is spoken of.

LATEST.—Turin, 21st.—The official Piedmontese Gazette publishes a decree authorizing the finance Minister to contract a loan of one hundred million francs by means of the alienation of the rents on the public debt to that amount.

Count Rogier, Minister of Belgium, has arrived at Turin.

He had a large sum of money on his person in the afternoon, which had been taken from his pocket by the murderers. Government have offered a reward for their apprehension.

The St. John Globe has taken a step in advance on Railway extension, from St. John to the United States. The articles upon this (to St. John) important subject, are well conceived and ably written. The writer, by referring to the files of the New Brunswick for 1854 or 1855, will find several excellent letters upon the same subject, containing information with respect to the route, statistics, &c., which might be useful in supporting his arguments. The correspondence referred to was published over the signature C. K., and are worthy an attentive perusal.

The first snow this season fell here on Friday last, covering the ground, but quickly disappeared during the day. The weather continues mild—the mornings and evenings only being cold.

Blackwood's Magazine for October.

Republished by L. Scott & Co., 54 Gold street, New-York.

It would not be an easy matter to put one's finger on a dull number of this famous periodical, and when we announce, as we do now, the publication of a new number, the reader may look for at least one paper the perusal of which will be worth his while.

We have no intention canvass the different articles in the present issue, which offer the usual variety; but we cannot refrain from calling attention to, and soliciting a careful perusal of, the abstract from Capt. Speke's Journal in this and the number for Sept. giving the details of a journey in Central Africa made by him in conjunction with Lieut. Burton. Travelling districts before unexplored by the white man, that offer, entered Africa on east coast, worked up the northward and westward, to the Mountains of the Moon, in their vicinity has discovered a vast lake or inland sea, to which he has given the name of Victoria Nyanza, and which is very reason to believe is the long-sought Fountain of the Nile. This lake is situated exactly on the Equator; and its position and the formation of the country lend much probability to the suggestion.

We cannot reproduce in this brief notice Capt. Speke's argument on the subject, but we must refer for the details to the number itself. A continuation is promised, which will probably throw still further light on the solution of this most interesting problem.

An age which has witnessed the discovery of the two other famous geographical enigmas, the mouth of the Niger and the North-West Passage, will certainly not much longer be baffled by the few miles yet remaining to connect the explorations of the Nile from the North with the recent discoveries of travellers pushing up from the South.
