

FALL MEETING OF CHURCHES

CONVENTION IS IN PROGRESS IN CITY

Congregational and Reformed Episcopal Representatives Elect Officers To-day.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The fourth autumn association meeting of the Canadian Northwest Association of Congregational churches and the Reformed Episcopal churches of British Columbia, is in session in First Congregational church to-day. The opening meeting was held last evening. Owing to the delays in navigation the mainland delegates were late in getting in last evening and a number of speakers from Seattle were unable to get in until noon to-day.

Rev. T. W. Gladstone, of the Reformed Episcopal church, Humboldt street, and president of the association, is presiding over the sessions. The general theme which is being considered at this meeting is the teachings of Jesus, and these are being dealt with in their various phases and their application to differing human circumstances by talented clergymen, members of the association and visitors from Washington state.

Last evening Rev. John Reid, D. D., conducted a service of worship, and while waiting for the arrival of the mainland delegates Rev. Dr. Spencer and Rev. John Deane made short addresses.

Rev. W. Leslie Clay, on behalf of the Victoria Ministerial Association, welcomed the association to the city. Rev. Gladstone delivered his presidential address, in which he spoke of the advance in spiritual life of the people.

Rev. John Simpson, Vancouver, read his thoughtful paper on "The Statement of Christian doctrine." He dwelt on the need for re-stating some of the doctrines of the church in the light of later investigation and modern conditions. In this work the truth is in Christ Jesus must be taken as the object of earnest search and the spirit of God as a guide. All barriers in the way must be overcome in the interests of truth. To the truth it was pointed out that fears sometimes expressed as to the effect of restating Christian doctrines were baseless, as the truth had nothing to fear from the fullest and freest inquiry. All progress in Christian life had come as the result of the inspiration and operation of the spirit of God.

The address was listened to with marked interest and attention.

To-day's sessions.

This morning's session began with a service of worship and praise, led by Rev. Mr. Carson. The papers read at the session were "Jesus and the World," by Rev. Merton Smith, Vancouver, and "Jesus and Obedience," by Rev. W. Orr Wark, Bellingham, Wash. Both proved very helpful and were well received.

At the opening of the afternoon session separate business sessions were held by the Congregational and Reformed Episcopal associations. The papers down for the joint session following were: "Jesus and Worship," Rev. A. B. Owen, Vancouver; "Jesus and Wealth," Rev. E. Tremayne Dunstan, Seattle; "Jesus and Society," Rev. Sidney Strong, D. D., Seattle.

A general discussion ensued on all the phases of the subject dealt with, which was led by George Carter and A. T. Frampton, Victoria. The election of officers will take place before adjournment and at six o'clock the delegates will dine together.

Following a short service of praise this evening the association sermon will be delivered by Rev. F. J. Van Horn, D. D., of Seattle, one of the longest men in the church and an eloquent preacher. Dr. Van Horn will speak on "Jesus and Fellowship." The Lord's supper will be celebrated later. Rev. John Reid, D. D., conducting the service.

BAYLIS RESIGNS FROM THE Y. M. C. A.

Entered Second Time in Gold Seal Race Under Bay's Colors.

(From Wednesday's Daily.)

The resignation of Frank Baylis is in the hands of the local Y. M. C. A., and, it is stated, probably be accepted, although a conference between the athlete and the association will be held first. Baylis some time ago entered for the Gold Seal race in Vancouver to be run on Thanksgiving day. His entry was under the Y. M. C. A. of Victoria. The entry under Y. M. C. A. patronage was withdrawn when particulars reached here that the prize for the race, valued at a large sum, was donated by a firm of liquor dealers. Baylis again re-entered the race with the J. B. A. club as his sponsor, and will run under their colors. The Vancouver News-Advertiser on the matter says: "Frank Baylis, of Victoria, who won the Con Jones cup in the Association Football Marathon race, will start in the Gold Seal race here on Thanksgiving day. Baylis entered under Y. M. C. A. colors, but his entry was afterwards cancelled. The well known athlete was determined to run under his own colors."

When he fell in Mr. Jewett had on very heavy clothing and a pair of heavy long rubber boots. He had a quantity of anchor chain thrown over his shoulder at the time, and this, together with his heavy clothing, weighed him down so that he just managed to get to the surface once and call for help. He sank again, but managed to get his head above the surface for an instant when Bert Hoy and C. O. Julian, who were on board, were attracted by his cry and came on deck just in time to grasp the sinking man. Mr. Hoy got a finger hold of Mr. Jewett's hair and with Mr. Julian's assistance, pulled him aboard the yacht. The anchor chain had got twisted around Mr. Jewett's arms and its weight came near proving fatal.

Letters of regret for their absence were received from Hon. Richard McBride and Charles Hayward.

THE net amount realized at the bazaar was $218.35, while the expenses are not over $5. The fancy work table cleared, $265.35; fish pond, $115.25; candy, $112; tea, $91.45; ice cream, $74.50; plain table, $27.35; flower table, $7.45.
