

"Toronto," came into operation on Jan. 1st, 1850. Under this Statute the establishment was conducted until April, 1853, when the University was divided into two Institutions, one retaining the title of the "University of Toronto," and the other styled "University College, Toronto." The first of these Institutions is formed on the model of the University of London, its functions being limited to prescribing subjects of examination for Degrees, Scholarships, Prizes, or Certificates of Honors, examining candidates therein, and conferring such degrees or distinctions.

University College has adopted the courses prescribed by the University of Toronto, and in it Lectures are given on the subjects, appointed for Candidates for the Degree of B.A., or for the Diplomas in Civil Engineering and Agriculture.

SECTION I.—STUDENTS.

1. There are three classes of Students admissible to the College.

UNDERGRADUATES: Those who have passed the Matriculation examination in any University in Her Majesty's dominions, or in the College.

STUDENTS: Those who desire to attend, during an Academic year or Term, two or more Courses of Lectures.

OCCASIONAL STUDENTS: Those who desire to attend but one course of Lectures.
