POLICE COURT.

Ole Jensen, Alias Olaf Larson, Sent Back to Salisbury Again for Trial—A Quiet Morning.

A very sober week end was reported at the police court this morning, where only two drunks required attention. One was disposed of by a fine of $4, whilst the other, a Dane, with the very British name of Charles Johnson, who was arrested on Saturday evening, protested in broken English that he was not drunk, saying it was only a sickness in his arm.

Ederton Ryerson, son of the founder of Ontario's splendid educational system, was in the city on Saturday. Mrs. W. Guy Tapley will receive her friends on Tuesday afternoon and evening and Wednesday afternoon at her home, 264 Rockland road. W. H. Barnaby, Jack Belyea, Frank Lattimer and Donald McAvity returned Saturday night after a week's successful fishing at the South Branch Lake.

Doctors Want Sanatorium. Local Committee Will Strongly Recommend One to the Medical Society—Details Carefully Studied. The committee appointed by the St. John Medical Society to go into the question of the proposed sanatorium for the treatment of consumptives have completed their investigations and will present their report to a meeting of the society to be held this evening, who will consider it prior to its discussion at the twenty fifth annual meeting of the New Brunswick Medical Society, which commences at the council chamber tomorrow morning.

A Destitute Family. Edward McDondie of 2 Brook street, a man of very short stature, has left his wife and children in a state of great destitution and it is supposed gone to the West. McDondie, who has recently been working in Hilyards mill, has been drinking very heavily for some time past, and has scarcely contributed anything towards keeping his wife and children, whom he has three small ones. There is hardly a stick of furniture in the house, whilst for food, the wife and children have been solely dependent on the charity of neighbors.

Edmund Breeze Going Fishing. Will Also Study the Red Indian in His Native Lair. Edmund Breeze, the well known actor, and son-in-law of L. J. D. Landry of this city, left this morning for the Miramichi where he will fish at what is known as the Big Hole, a property belonging to a sister of Dr. Quigley, of this city.

Probate Court. In probate court this morning the last will of the late Mrs. Sarah McDonald was admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh and Miss Laura McDonald, daughters of the deceased and the executrix mentioned in the will, $2,500 personal, D. Mullin, K. C., proctor.

Free Baptist Meeting. The 5th session of the Free Baptist church, in the sixth district, opened at Cornhill on Friday last, with a good attendance. Addresses were made by some of the ministers present and reports were read from the various churches, Sunday schools and missionary societies. The reports were most encouraging. Twenty-three churches were reported, having a membership of 1,255; additions during the year being 111.

Weddings. Wilson-Buckley. A very pretty wedding took place this morning at six o'clock, when Miss Katherine St. Clair Buckley, eldest daughter of Thomas Buckley, inspector of live stock for this port, was united in marriage to Alfred C. D. Wilson, an efficient employe of Macaulay Bros., King street.

This Evening. Vaudeville at Seaside Parr. Special meeting of Medical Society at 8.30. Meeting of Painters' Union. Milford Temple of Honor moonlight excursion.

Eyeglasses

Not nearly right nor about right, but—just right. That should be everybody's thought about eyeglasses. We do our part—just right; give lenses that fit the eyes and frames that fit the face. If your eyes trouble you in any way we will tell you whether glasses will help you or not. L. L. SHARPE, Watchmaker and Optician, 21 King St, St. John, N. B.
