NOTICE.

WE are distributing this week from house to house circulars about

Some imitations of Butter Nut Bread are very good in appearance. Unfortunately the purchaser has not the opportunity of applying the "Eating" test before buying.

To prevent unfair judgment of the genuine B. N. Bread please read the Circular carefully.

N. B.—Occasionally labels fall off. Purchaser should then look for the word Butternut, or ROBINSON, stamped on bottom of loaf.

"HOME, SWEET HOME" IS TO BE DESTROYED

The Little Thatched Cottage in Which Payne Lived Will be Torn Down to Make Room for a Church

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The little thatched cottage at East Hampton, Long Island, in which John Howard Payne, author of "Home Sweet Home" lived in his early years, and which when he was a wanderer on the face of the globe inspired his immortal ballad is to be destroyed. The site on where it has stood so many years has been purchased and the structure will be torn down and a church erected in its place.

LEAD PENCILS ARE DEARER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.—The wholesale rate on all lead pencils costing $3.00 or less a gross has gone up, according to announcements now being sent to stationers by domestic manufacturers, from 5 to 25 cents a gross.
New price lists of some lines of foreign pencils are also being sent to dealers.
The reason given for the advance is the higher cost of labor and material.

OLD COUGHS

New coughs are bad enough.
Old coughs are worse. They always make one think of bronchitis, consumption, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral quickly cures new coughs. And it cures old ones, too. The next time you see your doctor, ask him why this medicine so promptly relieves coughs.

ST. JOHN, N. B., NOVEMBER 9, 1906.

THE TELEPHONE FIGHT.

Moncton people, or some of them, are up in arms against the policy introduced by the telephone combine, and there has been excited talk of expropriation proceedings, the formation of a new company, and several other plans all calculated to prevent the exercise of such unfair or unreasonable methods as are in the power of any monopoly.
It may be that there has been some ground for complaint, and indeed Moncton is not the only town from which hard words are heard against the newly organized company. Woodstock and Campbellton are calling loudly on local capitalists for the formation of new concerns which shall enter into competition and provide a good service at reasonable rates.

It seems that before the merger of the New Brunswick and Central Companies, agents of one or both endeavored to secure as many subscribers as possible in the different sections covered, in order that the field might be fully served, and thus to prevent competition. Low rates were offered, lower than are given as a rule, and many subscribers are still enjoying the benefits of the bargain made. But the new company, realizing that it is now alone in the field and that it can charge any price, is, in some cases, advancing the rates for instruments even to those subscribers whose contracts have not yet expired. The company under its charter or in the absence of any law to the contrary, may have the power to do this, but it is on the face of it rather a cheap policy and one which warrants in making lots of enemies for those who are responsible.

The hope that rates would be reduced by competition between the two big companies was dispelled when the merger took place. Another new corporation might be formed to compete in the provincial field, but as men seldom go into business for the sake of charity, such a new company would undoubtedly be swallowed up by the combine.

OUR OWN FAULT IF WE DO NOT PROSPER.

One of the leading manufacturers in this city said a week or two ago at a public meeting "there is no reason why we should not have many more important industries than we now have, unless the people of St. John are greatly to be pitied." This citizen is one who has taken a keen interest in the progress of the city. He is at the head of the largest manufacturing plant in operation here and is in a position to speak from personal knowledge. There are many lines of industry which might be developed, and indeed at the present time several new projects are under consideration. The board of trade committee has obtained a mass of information all of which goes to show that the advantages which St.
John can hold out to intending investors are more attractive than in almost any other city in the maritime provinces. This information should all be available if the citizens decide on the formation of a 75,000 club or any other organization which has in view the increasing prosperity of the city. The field of effort of such a club need not, and indeed would not, be bounded by the limits of St. John, for if the city prosper the country roundabout must inevitably share in the benefits and the province as a whole would feel the effects.

HEROES, ALL.

Time and again have the praises of the Northwest Mounted Police been sung throughout Canada, and it again becomes fitting to draw attention to the heroism and devotion displayed by one of these men, although his work is no different from what is being done every day by members of the force.

Constable Soller, a young man drawing perhaps a dollar per day, was sent in February last from a point on the west coast of Hudson Bay to search for a ship, the Ernest William, and report as to her liability to the customs. He was away for two months, exposed during all that time to the intense cold of an Arctic winter, yet he pushed on and on, and accomplished his mission, covering in the entire trip 550 miles. He suffered from hunger, and indeed for a time even when meat was plentiful he had to eat it frozen as the supply of alcohol and wood gave out. The diary kept by the constable is what might be expected from such a man, brief entries which only hint at the sufferings endured, but which do not contain even a suggestion of weakening determination.

NO BIRCH RODS NOW.

"The road to knowledge nowadays,"
said the first old schoolmaster, "is too swift and too easy. It's a regular railroad."

"Yes," agreed the other old pedagogue, "and it's a railroad with fewer switches than are necessary."

THE KING'S BIRTHDAY.

In honor of the birthday of the King a royal salute was fired at noon today from Barracks Square by No. 3 Co.
C. A., under Major Robinson.

LONDON, Nov. 9.—King Edward is celebrating his 65th birthday quietly at Sandringham surrounded by his family. He is in excellent health. Very many congratulatory messages reached His Majesty during the day and many valuable presents were received from the sovereigns of Europe and personal friends. The customary salutes were fired by the warships at the naval centers.

BLUFFING.

(From the Washington Star.)
It maybe in yer system there's a little sporting streak.
You'll understand the joy of which I'm tryin' fur to speak.
When yer're kind of losin' courage an' yer luck is runnin' hard, An' ye hold a lookin' flush an' raise and draw a single card, An' it ain't the card ye wanted, but ye don't give in—not yet, But jes' keep on a raisin' till the rest are skeered to bet.
Ye feel a thrill of pleasure such as comes to very few, Life's a golden dream of glory when yer bluff goes through!

We're all a-bluffin' more or less fur big or little stakes, We keep a face that's smilin' an' conceal the heart that aches, As we risk our time an' money in the hope of ease or fame.
Ye don't show yer weakness when ye start to play the game, But now an' then ye miss it; it may be a railroad deal, Or some little hope ye cherished that sifts of two series of numbers, As sick an' sore as if ye'd jes' been taken out an' mauled.
I tell you, boys, it's awful when yer bluff gets called!

A CURIOSITY IN FIGURES.

The following remarkable contribution to the curiosities of figures consists of two series of numbers, of which no description is necessary, as they speak for themselves. Perhaps there is no special profit in them, but they are worth preserving nevertheless:—
1 times 9 plus 2 equals 11
12 times 9 plus 3 equals 111
123 times 9 plus 4 equals 1111
1234 times 9 plus 5 equals 11111
12345 times 9 plus 6 equals 111111
123456 times 9 plus 7 equals 1111111
1234567 times 9 plus 8 equals 11111111
12345678 times 9 plus 9 equals 111111111
1 times 9 plus 1 equals 9
12 times 9 plus 2 equals 98
123 times 9 plus 3 equals 987
1234 times 9 plus 4 equals 9876
12345 times 9 plus 5 equals 98765
123456 times 9 plus 6 equals 987654
1234567 times 9 plus 7 equals 9876543
12345678 times 9 plus 8 equals 98765432
12345679 times 9 plus 9 equals 987654321

JOHNNY OBEYED.

Mrs. Flint was a very stern woman, who demanded instant and unquestioning obedience from her children. One afternoon a storm came up, and she sent her son John to close the trap leading to the flat roof of the house.
"But, mother—" said John.
"John, I told you to shut the trap."
"Yes, but mother—" said John.
"John, shut the trap!" said John.
"All right, mother, if you say so, but—" said John.
John slowly climbed the stairs and shut the trap. The afternoon went by and the storm howled and raged. Two hours later the family gathered for tea, and when the meal was half over Aunt Mary, who was staying with Mrs.
Flint, had not appeared. Mrs. Flint started an investigation. She did not have to ask many questions, John answered the first one.
"Please, mother, she is up on the roof."

MOTHER TO BLAME.

There is an extremely pretty girl in Brooklyn who has not been blessed with an oversupply of this world's goods. Recently she met a young man who is decidedly well off and who immediately began to show her considerable attention. The young man in question is of an extremely bashful disposition, and one evening recently, when the girl's mother appeared abruptly in the sitting room at a most inopportune moment, he literally bolted.
"I am shocked, Ethel, that you should show so little modesty as to let that young man kiss you!" the mother said, severely.
"And I am astonished," the girl retorted, almost crying with vexation, "that you should show such an amazing lack of discretion as to see him do it!"

road."

switches than are necessary."

HELD UP BY BANDIT

One Man Went Through all the Pockets.

Made the Pullman Conductor Walk Ahead and Wake the Sleeping Passengers.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 9.—The operator at the Chicago and Alton R. station here reports that the Golden State Limited passenger train eastbound on that road was held up and robbed one mile east of Chicago, about 2.30 o'clock this morning. The bandits went through the sleeping cars robbing the occupants, but were prevented from entering the chair cars and day coaches by the conductor of the train who locked the doors. No one was injured and the cars were not damaged. It is not known how much booty was obtained nor how many men were concerned in the hold-up. The robbers jumped off the train and escaped in the darkness.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 9.—The Alton officers in this city say they have a report that one man boarded the rear sleeper of the Golden State Limited at Slater, Mo., fifteen miles west of Chicago and with a revolver in each hand forced the Pullman conductor and porter to walk ahead of him and awaken the passengers. He was prevented from entering the second car by the conductor who closed and locked the door, and the robber escaped by jumping from the train. The amount of booty is thought to be small.
The Golden State Limited left Kansas City at nine o'clock last night for Chicago.

SKATE AND DANCE TONIGHT.

Tonight in Victoria Rink a King's Birthday programme of skating music and a dance will be held. After the fun on the rinks is over the dancing will commence. This will attract numerous lovers of the fantastic art, as well as spectators. The Vic. rink is the best for dancing hereabouts, holding an enormous crowd. The dance held up by one of the Holmstroms proved it to be well suited to the purpose.

TONIGHT'S OPERATIC VAUDEVILLE.

A bumper house at the outlook tonight at the York, when the Pollard children bid farewell to their St. John audience. The grand review of their work will terminate in the singing of Auld Lang Syne and a happy speech by one of the Holmstroms. Tonight's show will be an entire change, something novel. It will not be a single operetta or a dozen or more of operas rolled into one. All that the children have done in the way of songs, dances, marches, ballets, etc. since coming to this land will be gone over in part, giving a list of selections thirty strong.
It will be a most unusually interesting evening from start to finish. Seats booked by phone up to 7.15; after that time at the box office. Tomorrow afternoon the children play for the last time here in St. John.

YOUNG WOMAN'S COOLNESS

PREVENTED A FIRE

Miss Ellison Carried a Blazing Carboy

From Her House to the Yard, Being

Badly Burned While Doing So.

A quite serious accident occurred in an Exmouth street home last evening.
Miss Ellison was lighting a lamp and dropped the match on a carboy which was covered with oil. The wicker work was soon ablaze, and it looked as if a serious fire might result. The young lady, with unusual presence of mind, carried the burning case down to the yard. John Law, another tenant of the house, rushed out and smothered the blaze with some rugs. He was slightly burned in doing so.
The young lady had her sleeves rolled up when she was carrying the flaming carboy. Her hands and arms were badly burned and she received slight injuries to her face. Had Mr. Law not seen the carboy on fire in the two years house would probably have been set on fire, as the young lady threw the car-boy down only a few feet away from the ell of the house, being unable to carry it any farther.
