At half-past eight the Presidential train arrived at Pedro Miguel, where some steam shovels were at work. The President had his train stopped for the purpose of making a personal examination. At this point in the cut the peculiar soft conditions have resulted in more or less frequent landslides, and this fact was brought to the President's attention. President Roosevelt descended from his train and climbed upon one of the steam shovels, taking a seat alongside Engineer Gray, whom he asked many questions regarding the work. During the conversation Engineer Gray took the opportunity, on behalf of himself and the other engineers, to declare that, unlike the rail-part of the proposed of the paid of the president rail that the proposed of the steam shovels, taking a seat alongside Engineer Gray took the opportunity, on behalf of himself and the other engineers, to declare that, unlike the rail-part of the proposed of the proposed of the proposed proposed of the steam shovels, taking a seat alongside Engineer Gray took the opportunity, on behalf of himself and the other engineers, to declare that, unlike the rail-part of the proposed pr

WANTS MORE PAY AT FALL FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 16.-The executive committee of the Fall River Manufacturers' Association held a meeting today to discuss the demand of the Textile Council for a ten per cent. advance in the wages of the cotcent, advance in the wages of the cotton mill operatives.

None of the treasurers who attended the meeting would make a statement concerning the conclusions reached, but it is thought that a compromise will be suggested to the textile council in a letter which will probably reach the union representatives tomorrow. The council named November 19 as the latest date for the receipt of a reply.

The operatives feel that in view of The operatives feel that in view of the prosperous state of the industry they should receive higher wages. The Textile Council asks that the price paid for weaving be advanced from 19.80 cents per cut, the present price, to 21.78 cents, the rate pair prior to the reduction of 1903.

Some excitement was created on Water street this morning when a large racoon was seen to run across the street near the ferry toll house. Two sailors captured the animal and took it was beard the schener Reger Druy. on board the schooner Roger Drury.

The case preferred against Bart M. Duffy for selling liquor to a minor named Bert Ganter was resumed this morning. A companion of Ganter named Harris Hampton gave evidence that he was with Ganter Wednesday evening when Ganter was arrested. Ganter was drunk and the liquor had been given them by a man who took them into a Charlotte street alley and gave them two drinks from a bottle. Policeman Finley who made the arrest, said that Ganter said he got the liquor from the Duffy bar. Ganter said he did not remember saying so. Mr. Duffy was excused by the court.
