JACK JOHNSON TELLS WHY

If confidence was all that was necessary to settle the dispute between Jack Johnson and James J. Jeffries for the world's heavyweight championship then Johnson would stand a splendid chance of winning. Johnson put in a week in Milwaukee and did many miles on the road, but mostly in his automobile. The colored champion was not given to boasting at all, but was moderate in his statements in sizing up his opponent of next July. Regarding the big battle Jack said:

"It would be foolish on my part to say that I would whip Jeffries surand that he would not have a look-in, etc: Now, I do not expect to lose the fight, but I do not look for a walkaway by any means. Jeffries was a wonderful fighter before he retired, and I guess he is still a great fighter but I am just conceited enough to thin that I am a little better than he is now, and therefore I expect to win. I have been measured thoroughly by Dr. Sargent of Harvard and given every test possible and he tells me that I am almost perfect as regards physical development. I am just as strong as Jeffries. If that is the case I figure that I should win, because I am younger than he is and will be at my best, and my stamina will be better than his. In addition I figure that I am and my stamina will be better than his. In addition I figure that I am cleverer than Jeff, although some claim that he is just as clever as I am.

NEW YORK GIANTS

HE WILL PROVE VICTOR MARLIN, Tex., March 4-With Cy Seymour hitting a ball so hard that he knocked out one of his own teeth, nd the other veterans jumping into ractice under a hot sun and showing a lot of pepper the first day, the spring training of the Giants may now be said WILL GO TO EUROPE AFTER JULY

HAVE REAL PRACTICE

"After the fight on July 4 I intend to go to Europe for a tour, no matter whether I win or not, but I expect to go as world's champion. That story about me meeting Tommy Burns is bunk. I have not agreed to any such match and will not unless I should get the same terms as Burns handed to me when I defeated him in Australia. And I will not pay any attention to Sam Langford until after the big battle." Raymnod particularly despises, and that's why McGraw makes him do more of it than any of the other players.

Seymour's loss of a piece of his dental frontpiece was amusing. He hit a ball in the morning practice game, and as he was rounding second base he opened his mouth to yell and out tumbled a crown. Cy halted the game and time was called while he hunted for the tooth. The Giants all think that Seymour will undoubtedly get the prize for a true experience concerning a hard hit ball.

Regarding the international boxing hoard, Jack said: "An international board for boxing would be the best hing that could happen. It would help he game and clear many perplexing fuestions. I like the English scale of weights pretty well, especially the weiters at 147 and the bantams at 118. The lightweight scale should be 135 instead of 133, and by all means there should be no ringside weights. All weighing in should be done at about 2 or 3 o'clock in the afternoon, as then it gives a man a chance to go into the ring strong, as they should be, and to half dead, as many have done in the past in order to save weight forfeits. Ringside weight is bad and should never be tolerated by the board. The board would also be a good thing to settle all questions about titles. The movement should be encouraged by all boxers and promoters in the states."

The veteran pitchers lined up with the youngsters and soaked the ball into to the mits of four catchers, but none of them felt like doing much except Crandall, who had plenty of smoke. He says that he has acquired a fine wrist movement from shucking corn out on his old Indiana homestead.

The regulars and Yanigans lined up for their first game in the afternoon. It was a real ball game for three innings and then it deteriorated into a scrub contest, the old boys winning in seven innings by a score of 9 to 7. A majority of the regulars who have just reported quit the game after the third inning and the substitutes gathered the runs.

Buck, the Colgate youngster, pitched the first three innings for the Yanigans. He allowed one hit and shut out the old boys easily. Buck exhibited a slow ball which was a puzzler. Al Klawitter was the opposing pitcher and he also pitched well. Merkle tapped one over the wall on Klawitter in the third inning for the only run scored on the Shreveport iron man. Parsons followed Klawitter to the rubber and Scott relieved Buck. They pitched the last

The youngsters scored four runs in the fourth inning, but the regulars came back with five and tied the score. Each gathered a tally in the sixth inning, but the veterans collected three more in the seventh against one for their opponents. The losers outhit the enemy 13 to 8.

Shafer showed up well at the bat with a pair of doubles and a single, and others on the Yanigans who batted nicely were Collins, with three singles; Merkle, with a home run and a double, and Kommers, with a single and a double. Herzog had two doubles for the winning side.

McGraw received a wire from Willie Keeler today stating that no offer would be considered before that of the New York club. This makes it seem almost certain that Keeler will join the Giants within a week or ten days. McGraw thinks Keeler is able to earn a good salary as an emergency hitter even if he does nothing else. Infielder Arthur Fletcher will report tomorrow morning. He will be the forty-first player to salute McGraw.

Three teams will perform next Sunday, games having been scheduled at Dallas, Forth Worth and Waco.

"I know I have a better left thand than he has and can fight on the defense as well as any man living. That being the case, why should I not be able to go along for quite a distance and wear him out without taking chances and then go in to win? I know as well as anyone that Jeffries will be a different proposition than either Tommy Ryan or Stanley Ketchel, and I would be foolish to say that he will not do as well as they did. Now, I always had a great deal of respect for Jeffris, and looked upon him as a wonderful fighter, but to tell the truth I do not think he is as good now. He may be able to come back in the best of shape, but you will find that when it comes to a case of stamina and ability to recuperate, he will not be there. That was proven in the case of Battling Nelson against Ad Wolgast. Nelson used to be there with the come-back no matter how hard he was pressed, but after Wolgast had fought him to a standstill the Battler did not have the reserve power any more, and that is just what will happen to Jeffries—he will not be able to recuperate when his strength begins to leave him.

"They say Jeffries weighs 225 now, but I know he is neare? 48f, and he will no doubt fight at about 216 to 220, I am weighing about 220 now, and expect to train down and enter the ring, at about 200. Jeffries—he will live longer ereach than I have, mine being 72% inches, but that will not matter. And just say that I am six feet and a quarter of an inch tall in my stockings, while Jeffries is just about half an inch taller. I will put in two more weeks at minneapoils and St. Paul and then go to not have the reserve power any more, and that in three terms with private once, it will mean much to you to set our free booklet. It will piece will be a standstill have been been been been dearned on the proposed of the weight and Olympic style. He also holds the American 42-pound stone record of 21 feet, half inch.
Martin's all around athletic record is 7,385 points, and was made in New York Celtic Park last Independence Day. His world's record for the seven-foot circle discus throw is 139 feet 10½ inches; for the Greek style discus throw, 116 feet 7½ inches, and for the Olympic weight discus throw 142 feet 10½ inches. MARTIN SHERIDAN GIVES OUT HIS RETIREMENT

Martin Sheridan, of the Irish-American A. C., the world's greatest athlete, hero of three Olympiads and many times a world's champion and record holder, says that he has made his last appearance as a competitor and probably never again will don athletic togs. Martin told this a fortnight ago. The reporter, a friend of Sheridan, could not believe that Martin seriously intended withdrawing from competition, and gave the champion a fortnight to think it over. However, Martin said that he still was of the same mind and that he is out of the game mind and that he still was of the same mind and that he is out of the game for good.

When seen, President Patrick J. Con-way of the New York Irish-American

when seen, President Patrick J. Conway of the New York Irish-American A. C., said:—
"Yes, it is right that Martin says he is out of the game for good. I can't bring myself to believe it, however, and think that sooner or later he will be induced to don the togs again, You have seen champions retire before. Most always the call of the game has won them back. That is what I hope will hispen in Martin's case. Why, the champion is in his prime and should have many grand years ahead of him. I am hoping that we can induce the big fellow to come back."

Martin makes one qualification in speaking of his retirement. He says that in case Uncle Sam should send at team to the Olympic games in Greece next summer he might try for the team. "I have represented America in three Olympiads," said Sheridan, "and if there should be a team sent to Athens next summer I would train for the games. That is the only thing that will bring mo out I am heartly tired or the game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game and think it is about time for its game its game
