There's a voice of serrow—for time both ded,— A write and a mother his cold and dead; They've had her to sleep in her coulces rest With a young babe clasped to her marble breast, And flowers are there with their perfumed breast, Seeking the bud and blossom in death.

In the green church yard is a lonely spot. Where the joyons standard enters not. Deep in the gloom of the cypross shade. There is but hams in the cold earth stude. And over her still the sweet flow ress bloom. They were near her in his, and forsake it.

By the Queen's patent.

TRIUMPHANT SUCCESS OF Bucham's Hungarian Balsami of Life, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, and Con-rite most celebrated and infallible remady for Colds. Coughs, Ashma, and every form of Pulmonary Communities, is the HUNGARIAN BALSAM OF LIFE, discovered by that eminent medical chemist, Dr. Buchan, of London, England, and extensively known as the "Great English Rappedy."

Remedy.

It has been tested for upwards of seven years in Great Britan and on the continent of Europe, where it is universally considered the great, and only remedy for this awful malady, and now introduced, to the public under the immediate superintendence of the inventor. Within three years it has been distributed from Maine to Florida, and from Canada, da to Wiscousin, and its effects are every where falke ASCOURTERS and TRANSPORTERS.
