

happenings of the Week

Miss Kathleen Logan, Miss Marion Thompson, Miss Margaret Gilmore, Miss Audrey Hamilton, Miss Beesie Girvan, Miss Doris Barbour, Miss North Nevin, Miss Janie Creighton, Miss Marjorie Calkin and others.

The Arts Club met at the residence of Mrs. Thomas H. Bullock, Germain street, on Tuesday evening. The programme for the evening was in charge of Mrs. A. Pierce Crockett. "A Nature Evening." Many delightful solos, duets and quartettes were rendered. Miss Gunn in her usual artistic manner played a violin solo. A large number of ladies and gentlemen were present and thoroughly enjoyed the interesting evening. The next meeting will be held at Miss Doherty's, Wentworth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Rankine left last evening for New York on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McAvity left last evening for New York on a visit.

Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer and Miss Lois Grimmer spent Tuesday and Wednesday in the city, guests at the Royal.

Miss Louise Purvis, of Calais, is the guest of Mrs. H. L. Spangler, Germain street.

Congratulations are being extended to the Rev. R. A. Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong on the arrival of their daughter, Trinity Rectory, on Sunday, January 4th, a little stranger—a daughter.

Mr. George Harold Stewart, of Lethbridge, Alberta, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Stewart, Sydney street.

Mrs. Frederick E. Sayre will entertain at her residence, Queen Square, this afternoon at the tea hour.

The Loyalist Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire intend having a "Tango tea" in the York assembly rooms on Saturday, January 17th. Many young ladies and gentlemen who have been taking lessons in these graceful dances are looking forward to this novel afternoon from four until seven o'clock, and no doubt there will be a large number of spectators. The receipts are to carry on the philanthropic work of this energetic organization.

Mrs. Harvey L. Spangler, Germain street, entertained yesterday at a delightful tea.

Miss Louise Holly was the charming young hostess at the tea hour on Monday. Among the guests were Miss Gertrude Fleming, Miss Constance Campbell, Miss Marion Moore, Miss Helen Shaw, Miss Margaret Paterson, Miss Marion Belyea, Miss Muriel Belyea, Miss Nora Nevin, Miss Helen Foster, Miss Isabel Jack, Miss Mary Curran, Miss Mary White, Miss Edith White, Miss Eileen Cushing, Miss Edith Cudlip and others.

Mrs. Hetherington entertained at a beautifully appointed dinner at the P. L. Hospital on Monday after which bridge was played. The guests were Miss Hon. J. M. Macdonald, Governor Wood, Mr. Cruikshank, Premier Fleming, Attorney General Grimmer and members of the Provincial Cabinet.

Miss Marion Campbell left on Friday to spend some time in Halifax where she will take a course in art.

Miss Christie of Windsor is the guest of Miss Marion MacKendrick, Paddock street.

Miss Hannah, daughter of Dr. G. O. and Mrs. Hannah, returned to McDonald College, after spending Christmas vacation with her parents, Elliott Row.

Mrs. John Allingham will receive for the first time since her marriage at her residence Fairville, on Thursday and Friday, January 15th and 16th.

The second assembly was held Thursday evening in the York assembly rooms when a large number enjoyed a delightful dance. Music was provided by Jones' orchestra. The new tango dances being most popular were gracefully danced by many present. A delicious supper was served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. MacNeill leave this evening for Montreal, Ottawa and return via New York on a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mullin entertained at a delightful bridge of six tables at their residence, Germain street, on Thursday evening. Mrs. Mullin looked charming in a lovely gown of yellow crepe de chene over yellow silk, with this artistic gown were worn very handsome diamonds. The fortunate prize winners were Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mr. J. B. Cudlip and Dr. Curran. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cudlip, Dr. and Mrs. Curran, Mr. and Mrs. Vessey, Colonel W. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. MacNeill, Mr. and Mrs. Rive, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. White, Mrs. J. F. Harding, Miss Blair, Mr. Thomas Blair, Mr. Boyer Smith, Mr. Roy Campbell and Mr. Robert deBury.

Mrs. R. B. Paterson, Wentworth St., entertained informally at the tea hour on Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweet, who have been the guests of Mrs. Sweet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Leinster street, returned to Halifax on Friday.

The Brunswick Chapter of the Daughters of the Empire entertained for the first time since their organization at the residence of the Regent, Mrs. J. Boyle Travers, Lancaster Heights, on Wednesday evening at one of the most enjoyable musical and literary evenings given for some time. Those taking part were Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. A. P. Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Mayes, the Misses Knight, Miss Louise Murray, Miss Fenton, Mr. Frederick McKean and Mr. Barker. His Worship Mayor Frink introduced the numbers on the programme. A delicious supper was served, the delectable supper table presided at the table was Mrs. W. E. Earle and Mrs. G. S. Mayes. A number of ladies and gentlemen from the city were present.

Miss Edith Gregory of Fredericton is the guest of her sister Mrs. Alexander Macrae.

Dr. and Mrs. Murray MacLaren entertained on Tuesday evening at a very enjoyable dance in honor of their son, Mr. Ian MacLaren, who has been spending the holidays at home. Miss MacLaren left Fredericton to resume his studies at the U. N. B.

Mr. James Hagen left this week for Ottawa, where he is attending college.

Mrs. T. William Barnes gave a delightful dance at the "Wayside Inn," Hampton, on Friday evening, of last week. In honor of her son, Ronald Barnes, who was home from the U. N. B. spending the holidays. Among the guests from the city were Miss Catharine MacLaren, Miss Mary MacLaren, Miss Daphne Crosby, Miss Helen Murray, Miss Louise Robinson, Miss Helen C. Seely, Mr. Ian MacLaren, Mr. Loren Seely, Mr. Lawrence Kelly, Mr. Don Skinner, Mr. Malcolm Mackay and Mr. John Pugsley. While in Hampton the young ladies were guests at the home of Mrs. Barnes and the gentlemen were guests at the Wayside Inn.

Dr. Mayes Case, who has been in Chicago engaged in post-graduate studies, returned home last Saturday. Mrs. Case, who is visiting relatives in Dublin, will return home early in the spring.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Frederick J. Harding entertained at a bridge of six tables in honor of Mrs. Avery deWitt. Among the guests were Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mrs. Horace Porter, Mrs. Dicky, Mrs. C. M. Beder, Mrs. L. W. Barker, Mrs. James J. Gilbert, Mrs. Avery deWitt, Mrs. J. R. Gordon, Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Mrs. Mary MacLaren, Mrs. D. Seely, Mrs. W. A. Harrison, Mrs. W. Henry Harrison, Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Mrs. Frederick E. Sayre, Mrs. C. M. Beder, Mrs. L. W. Barker, Mrs. Frank White, Miss Edith Skinner, Miss Clara Schofield, Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones, Mrs. F. A. Peters, Mrs. J. M. Macdonald, Mrs. L. McLean. The lucky prize winners were Mrs. Walter A. Harrison and Miss Clara Schofield and dainty refreshments were served. The close of a very pleasant afternoon.

Mr. Hazen O. Barnaby's plans for the new Country Golf Club, which in the future is to be built at River side, it is understood, have been accepted. Many compliments are being extended Mr. Barnaby by his many friends. Mr. Barnaby has been studying architecture in Montreal and is meeting with much success.

Many friends will be glad to hear that Mrs. James F. Robertson is daily improving from her recent operation and was able to return home from the hospital on Tuesday.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley and Mrs. Pugsley are convalescing and are able to leave their room this week after their serious illness.

Mrs. Percy W. Thompson was hostess at a very delightful luncheon, Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Louis W. Barker. Covers were laid for sixteen. Mrs. Thompson received her guests in a very handsome white Bedford coat, the bodice was daintily trimmed with white lace. The guest of honor, Mrs. Barker, wore a lovely gown of rose crepe, beneath which a white dress of tulle. The handsomely appointed luncheon table had for its decoration red geraniums, very choice bouquets of red roses were at each place. The guests were Mrs. Frederick Schofield, Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. James D. Seely, Mrs. T. S. Ryder, Mrs. Simon Jones, Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones, Mrs. F. A. Peters, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. J. M. Robinson, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Mrs. J. R. Gordon, Mrs. Mary MacLaren, Mrs. Edith Skinner and Miss McMillan.

Miss Jean Garden, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Garden, Wellington row, left on Friday for Quebec.

Mr. Douglas Clinch left for Chicago on Saturday last.

Mrs. George F. Smith was hostess at a very enjoyable tea on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Guy del. Robinson of Toronto. Mrs. Smith received her guests in a very handsome black and white gown and Mrs. Robinson wore a very pretty dress of taupe brocade liberty with touches of lace on the bodice. Presiding over the handsome appointed tea table which was centered with a large silver basket of pink roses, were Mrs. Leigh Harrison and Mrs. J. S. MacLaren.

Mrs. F. A. Peters has issued invitations for a bridge on Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. deWitt of Wolfville, N. B.

The first Monday Evening Skating Club met this week. A large number of the members being present. The guests for the evening were Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Mrs. Alban Sturges, Mrs. Bertram Church and Miss Bridge. The club are also allowed to skate in the rink on Wednesday afternoon from five until six o'clock.

Miss Little Raymond and Miss Catherine McAvity will leave tomorrow night for St. Anne de Bellevue, where they will take a course in domestic science.

Mrs. A. O. Skinner and Miss Edith Skinner entertained at the tea hour yesterday in honor of Mrs. L. W. Barker.

Mrs. J. Royden Thomson gave a delightful children party on Monday afternoon for her little daughter, Miss Betty.

Mrs. J. M. Robinson entertained at luncheon at her home in Rothesay on Friday in honor of Mrs. L. W. Barker and Mrs. Guy Robinson. A large slot sh conveyed the party to Rothesay. At the luncheon, noticeable were the very elegant hats worn by the ladies. The guests were Mrs. J. R. Thomson, Mrs. A. S. Jones, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Mrs. P. W. Thomson, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Robinson, and Mrs. W. S. Allison.

Mrs. Malcolm Mackay has issued cards for a tea for Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Harding have invitations out for a bridge on Tuesday evening in honor of her guest Mrs. Avery deWitt.

Mrs. W. M. Angus was hostess at the L. M. Club on Thursday in honor of Miss Catherine McAvity and Miss Little Raymond. After luncheon the merry party enjoyed coasting.

ST. ANDREWS

St. Andrews, Jan. 8.—Mrs. G. Lane, of Boston, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Odel.

Mrs. D. G. Hanson Jr., has returned from a pleasant visit with St. John friends.

Miss Mary Grimmer left on Tuesday night to spend a few weeks in Amherst, N. S.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank McVey were visitors in town last week.

Capt. and Mrs. Harry Mowatt visited St. Stephen friends this week.

Miss Green, of North Sydney, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. A. Cockburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gove are rejoicing over the arrival of a daughter on Sunday Jan. 4th.

Mr. Herbert Everett gave a very pleasant snow-shoe party on New Year's night.

Mrs. Jas. Handy and Mrs. Orlo Hawthorne, are visiting Mrs. Thos. Donahue, Macdonald Junction.

On Tuesday evening a large number of friends of Capt. and Mrs. J. W. Simpson assembled at "Chester Hall" to assist them in celebrating their silver wedding day. Rev. G. H. Elliot read a congratulatory address and Mrs. G. H. Elliot presented them with a silver chafin dish, a handsome curate and a bunch of twenty-five carnations. Progressing whist was played. The evening, the fortunate prize winners being Mrs. R. E. Armstrong.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Fredrick J. Harding entertained at a bridge of six tables in honor of Mrs. Avery deWitt. Among the guests were Mrs. Frank Fairweather, Mrs. Horace Porter, Mrs. Dicky, Mrs. C. M. Beder, Mrs. L. W. Barker, Mrs. James J. Gilbert, Mrs. Avery deWitt, Mrs. J. R. Gordon, Mrs. Daniel Mullin, Mrs. Mary MacLaren, Mrs. D. Seely, Mrs. W. A. Harrison, Mrs. W. Henry Harrison, Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Mrs. Malcolm Mackay, Mrs. Frederick E. Sayre, Mrs. C. M. Beder, Mrs. L. W. Barker, Mrs. Frank White, Miss Edith Skinner, Miss Clara Schofield, Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones, Mrs. F. A. Peters, Mrs. J. M. Macdonald, Mrs. L. McLean. The lucky prize winners were Mrs. Walter A. Harrison and Miss Clara Schofield and dainty refreshments were served. The close of a very pleasant afternoon.

Mr. Hazen O. Barnaby's plans for the new Country Golf Club, which in the future is to be built at River side, it is understood, have been accepted. Many compliments are being extended Mr. Barnaby by his many friends. Mr. Barnaby has been studying architecture in Montreal and is meeting with much success.

Many friends will be glad to hear that Mrs. James F. Robertson is daily improving from her recent operation and was able to return home from the hospital on Tuesday.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley and Mrs. Pugsley are convalescing and are able to leave their room this week after their serious illness.

Mrs. Percy W. Thompson was hostess at a very delightful luncheon, Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Louis W. Barker. Covers were laid for sixteen. Mrs. Thompson received her guests in a very handsome white Bedford coat, the bodice was daintily trimmed with white lace. The guest of honor, Mrs. Barker, wore a lovely gown of rose crepe, beneath which a white dress of tulle. The handsomely appointed luncheon table had for its decoration red geraniums, very choice bouquets of red roses were at each place. The guests were Mrs. Frederick Schofield, Mrs. Harold C. Schofield, Mrs. James D. Seely, Mrs. T. S. Ryder, Mrs. Simon Jones, Mrs. F. Caverhill Jones, Mrs. F. A. Peters, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. J. M. Robinson, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Mrs. J. R. Gordon, Mrs. Mary MacLaren, Mrs. Edith Skinner and Miss McMillan.

Miss Jean Garden, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Garden, Wellington row, left on Friday for Quebec.

Mr. Douglas Clinch left for Chicago on Saturday last.

Mrs. George F. Smith was hostess at a very enjoyable tea on Wednesday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Guy del. Robinson of Toronto. Mrs. Smith received her guests in a very handsome black and white gown and Mrs. Robinson wore a very pretty dress of taupe brocade liberty with touches of lace on the bodice. Presiding over the handsome appointed tea table which was centered with a large silver basket of pink roses, were Mrs. Leigh Harrison and Mrs. J. S. MacLaren.

Mrs. F. A. Peters has issued invitations for a bridge on Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. deWitt of Wolfville, N. B.

The first Monday Evening Skating Club met this week. A large number of the members being present. The guests for the evening were Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Mrs. Alban Sturges, Mrs. Bertram Church and Miss Bridge. The club are also allowed to skate in the rink on Wednesday afternoon from five until six o'clock.

Miss Little Raymond and Miss Catherine McAvity will leave tomorrow night for St. Anne de Bellevue, where they will take a course in domestic science.

Mrs. A. O. Skinner and Miss Edith Skinner entertained at the tea hour yesterday in honor of Mrs. L. W. Barker.

Mrs. J. Royden Thomson gave a delightful children party on Monday afternoon for her little daughter, Miss Betty.

Mrs. J. M. Robinson entertained at luncheon at her home in Rothesay on Friday in honor of Mrs. L. W. Barker and Mrs. Guy Robinson. A large slot sh conveyed the party to Rothesay. At the luncheon, noticeable were the very elegant hats worn by the ladies. The guests were Mrs. J. R. Thomson, Mrs. A. S. Jones, Mrs. H. B. Robinson, Mrs. L. P. D. Tilley, Mrs. P. W. Thomson, Mrs. Barker, Mrs. Robinson, and Mrs. W. S. Allison.

Mrs. Malcolm Mackay has issued cards for a tea for Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Harding have invitations out for a bridge on Tuesday evening in honor of her guest Mrs. Avery deWitt.

Mrs. W. M. Angus was hostess at the L. M. Club on Thursday in honor of Miss Catherine McAvity and Miss Little Raymond. After luncheon the merry party enjoyed coasting.

Mrs. Gerald Bate entertained at a "The Damsel" on New Year's Day at her residence, on Willard street, for Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Aldora Bate. Mrs. Ernest Linton entertained at a tea for "not-outs" on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Florence Clarke, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest during the holidays of Mrs. A. R. Tibbitts, has returned home.

Hon. Francis and Mrs. MacNaughton of Calgary, are the guests of Mrs. MacNaughton's sister, Miss Grace Ritchie, en route for England and Ireland.

Miss Mary Robertson, of St. John, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Grace Ritchie.

Mrs. Donald J. McDonald was the hostess at a delightful New Year's Day tea. The table was presided over by Mrs. D'Arcy Scott and Miss Ethel Chadwick. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rowley, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McGivern, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Guise, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Britton Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Macann, Mrs. Victor Williams, Mrs. Arthur Broderick, Mrs. Edward Farquhar, Mr. and Mrs. William Erwin, Mrs. Drayton, Miss Grace Ritchie, Miss Mary Robertson, Miss Annie Moylan, Miss Flossie Fielding, the Misses McLeod Clarke, Mrs. Crombie.

The "The Damsel" given by Mrs. MacNaughton on Friday afternoon at the Royal Ottawa Golf Club was a very joyful event. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Miss Eleanor Machado, Miss Peetman and Mrs. Joe Machado. In honor of whom the entertainment was given. The young people danced in the large reception room where tea was also served. An orchestra stationed in the hall furnished delightful music throughout the afternoon.

The "not-outs" who have been having a great deal of gaiety ever since the holiday season began were entertained on Friday evening very delightfully at the residence of Mrs. Hugh McLachlin.

"Carlton Hall" the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Heney on the Richmond Road, was on Friday evening when an exceedingly enjoyable dance took place within its hospitable walls. Mrs. Heney wore a beautiful gown of black champagne and Master Rob MacKeen. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all and closed with the Doxology.

By Sunday's C. P. R. Mr. Wallace Turnbull, Mr. Enrol Stary and Mr. Peterson Davies left to resume their studies at Kingston Military College, after having spent the vacation weeks here.

Miss Muriel Gillis of St. John is this week the guest of Mrs. John W. Davidson.

Mr. Moffet Bell returned yesterday to Kings College, Windsor.

Mrs. James F. Robertson's many Rothesay friends are glad to know she was on Tuesday able to leave the St. John hospital and return home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington have as dinner guests tonight Mrs. Vassie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Foster of St. John.

Miss David D. Robertson and Miss Sophie Robertson left on Monday to spend a few months at Charleston. Miss Madge Robertson joined them in New York and accompanied them south.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. Fred A. Foster on Saturday were Miss McAvity of St. John and Miss Sellers of Wilmington, Delaware.

Rev. W. R. Hibbard, principal of

OTTAWA

Ottawa, Jan. 7.—The New Year was ushered in at the magnificent residence of Colonel and Mrs. J. W. Woods by a most brilliant and jolly gathering of young people in honor of their two daughters, Misses Margaret and Evelyn.

The splendidly appointed rooms were all used for the entertainment of the three hundred guests. The ball was a fancy dress masque, and this added to the beauty and gaiety of the scene. Dancing was in the rose pink music room and the spacious hall. The library, reception room and red room were used for sitting out. Supper was served in the billiard room where the table was heaped with American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Gerald Bate entertained at a "The Damsel" on New Year's Day at her residence, on Willard street, for Mrs. Stewart and Mrs. Aldora Bate. Mrs. Ernest Linton entertained at a tea for "not-outs" on Wednesday of last week.

Miss Florence Clarke, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest during the holidays of Mrs. A. R. Tibbitts, has returned home.

Hon. Francis and Mrs. MacNaughton of Calgary, are the guests of Mrs. MacNaughton's sister, Miss Grace Ritchie, en route for England and Ireland.

Miss Mary Robertson, of St. John, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Grace Ritchie.

Mrs. Donald J. McDonald was the hostess at a delightful New Year's Day tea. The table was presided over by Mrs. D'Arcy Scott and Miss Ethel Chadwick. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rowley, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McGivern, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Guise, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Britton Francis, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Macann, Mrs. Victor Williams, Mrs. Arthur Broderick, Mrs. Edward Farquhar, Mr. and Mrs. William Erwin, Mrs. Drayton, Miss Grace Ritchie, Miss Mary Robertson, Miss Annie Moylan, Miss Flossie Fielding, the Misses McLeod Clarke, Mrs. Crombie.

The "The Damsel" given by Mrs. MacNaughton on Friday afternoon at the Royal Ottawa Golf Club was a very joyful event. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Miss Eleanor Machado, Miss Peetman and Mrs. Joe Machado. In honor of whom the entertainment was given. The young people danced in the large reception room where tea was also served. An orchestra stationed in the hall furnished delightful music throughout the afternoon.

The "not-outs" who have been having a great deal of gaiety ever since the holiday season began were entertained on Friday evening very delightfully at the residence of Mrs. Hugh McLachlin.

"Carlton Hall" the handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Heney on the Richmond Road, was on Friday evening when an exceedingly enjoyable dance took place within its hospitable walls. Mrs. Heney wore a beautiful gown of black champagne and Master Rob MacKeen. The evening was greatly enjoyed by all and closed with the Doxology.

By Sunday's C. P. R. Mr. Wallace Turnbull, Mr. Enrol Stary and Mr. Peterson Davies left to resume their studies at Kingston Military College, after having spent the vacation weeks here.

Miss Muriel Gillis of St. John is this week the guest of Mrs. John W. Davidson.

Mr. Moffet Bell returned yesterday to Kings College, Windsor.

Mrs. James F. Robertson's many Rothesay friends are glad to know she was on Tuesday able to leave the St. John hospital and return home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Puddington have as dinner guests tonight Mrs. Vassie, Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Foster of St. John.

Miss David D. Robertson and Miss Sophie Robertson left on Monday to spend a few months at Charleston. Miss Madge Robertson joined them in New York and accompanied them south.

Luncheon guests of Mrs. Fred A. Foster on Saturday were Miss McAvity of St. John and Miss Sellers of Wilmington, Delaware.

Rev. W. R. Hibbard, principal of large table and the smaller tables for the guests.

The first skating and tobogganing party of the season given by their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught was held on Saturday afternoon. The weather was mild and delightful. A large number of people were present. His Royal Highness and the Princess Patricia received the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Borden entertained at a dinner party on Saturday evening.

New Year's night a most delightful bridge party was given at the Country Club by Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Northrup. The guests included Hon. Nesbitt and Mrs. Kirchoffer, Commander and Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. Guelther, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McGivern, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Guise, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Read, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cassels, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pringle, Mr. C. Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Irwin, Mr. Brown Wallis, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Ritchie.

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hansard, of Winnipeg, formerly of Ottawa, spent Saturday in town en route from Kingston to their home.

Sir Frederick and Lady Borden who returned to Canning, N.S., from Washington to spend the holiday season are expected in the capital the latter part of the month and will occupy their town residence for two or three months.

Hon. W. T. and Mrs. White entertained at a dinner party on New Year's night at the Chateau Laurier. The guests included Hon. Robert and Mrs. Rogers, Hon. Justice and Mrs. Duff, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Kingsmill, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brindmore of Toronto, Mr. Robert Rogers, Jr. and Mrs. Rogers of Winnipeg.

Miss Maud Farish, of Yarmouth, N. S. is the guest of Mrs. W. B. Anderson.

Mrs. Henry Thompson entertained on Monday evening at a very pleasant bridge party. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Broderick, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Broderick, Mr. and Mrs. B. Northrup, Mrs. Robert H. Fraser, Mrs. C. Read, Miss Powell, Mr. Cameron Stanton.

A complimentary dinner was given at the Country Club last evening for a number of its members in honor of the president and founder of the club, Mr. C. Berkeley Powell.

Mrs. W. P. Anderson entertained at tea yesterday in honor of her daughter Miss Dorothy. Pink carnations and white daisies decorated the drawing room and library and a large brass bowl filled with white and yellow carnations stood in the centre of the tea table. Mrs. R. N. Slater, Mrs. Percy Sherwood poured tea and coffee, and Mrs. Small served the loaves.

A most delightful twelfth night party for "not-outs" was given last evening by Mrs. Rodolphe Lemieux, in honor of her two little daughters, Miss Martha and Miss Clothilde. An old French custom was observed at eleven o'clock when the Roi cake was brought in, and after it was cut and distributed among the guests the girl and boy who found the gold ring and gold pin hidden in their piece were proclaimed king and queen for the rest of the evening.

The president of the Misses Skating Club and Mrs. Lake entertained at a very delightful party at the Arena Monday night. His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and H. R. H. the Princess Patricia honored the event by their presence. They were accompanied by Miss York, Miss Villiers, Colonel and Lady Evelyn Parquhar, Captains Bullock, Graham and Boscawell.

In Two Sections.

The Montreal train came in two sections yesterday morning, the first bringing the regular traffic and the second carrying about two hundred passengers for the Empress at Halifax. She proceeded east in one section.

their grandparents, Senator and Mrs. Domville. The Willows and Miss Woodhead left on Tuesday for their home in Montreal.

Several of our young people are planning to attend the dance to be given on Friday evening by Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, St. John, for her daughter Misses Annie and Mary Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lyton people this Miss Ada W. been the guest of E. White.

Mr. and Mrs. turned to Richmond. Miss E. John was in the hospital on Sunday, for the guest of Mrs. Jas. Prior.

A number of our young people are planning to attend the dance to be given on Friday evening by Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, St. John, for her daughter Misses Annie and Mary Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lyton people this Miss Ada W. been the guest of E. White.

Mr. and Mrs. turned to Richmond. Miss E. John was in the hospital on Sunday, for the guest of Mrs. Jas. Prior.

A number of our young people are planning to attend the dance to be given on Friday evening by Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, St. John, for her daughter Misses Annie and Mary Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lyton people this Miss Ada W. been the guest of E. White.

Mr. and Mrs. turned to Richmond. Miss E. John was in the hospital on Sunday, for the guest of Mrs. Jas. Prior.

A number of our young people are planning to attend the dance to be given on Friday evening by Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, St. John, for her daughter Misses Annie and Mary Armstrong.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lyton people this Miss Ada W. been the guest of E. White.

Mr. and Mrs. turned to Richmond. Miss E. John was in the hospital on Sunday, for the guest of Mrs. Jas. Prior.

A number of our young people are planning to attend the dance to be given on Friday evening by Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, St. John, for her daughter Misses Annie and Mary Armstrong.