HAMPTON

Hampton, Kings Co., June 27—There was a very pretty wedding this morning at the home of Mrs. William Langstroth on Everett street, when at 11 o'clock her cousin, Miss Winnie E. Barnes, only daughter of Mr. George H. Barnes, now of St. John, but late of Hampton Station, was united in marriage with Dr. Fred S. Lodge, dentist, of Charlottetown (P. E. I.), eldest son of the Rev. W. W. Lodge, president of the Methodist conference. Mrs. Langstroth's parlors were tastefully decorated in white and green—snowballs, carnations and daisies with ferns and vines forming the floral display—a daisy bell being used as a canopy under which the bridal couple stood during the ceremony. Only the members of the families interested and a few of the bride's most intimate companions and girl friends were present. There were no bridesmaids or groomsmen, and the ceremony was exceedingly simple. A few select voices sang The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden at the opening, and Mrs. Ralph A. March played Mendelssohn's Wedding March at the close. The marriage service was conducted by the Rev. R. G. Fulton, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by the Rev. W. W. Lodge, father of the groom. After the nuptial knot was tied the company sat down to a delicate but appetizing breakfast and thereafter the party escorted the bride and groom to the train for Point du Chene and gave them a hearty send off. The bride's wedding dress was of white crepe de chene with lace trimmings and her traveling dress of fine, soft gray cloth, with hat to match. The happy couple go direct to their new home at Charlottetown, where a hearty welcome awaits them.

The wedding gifts were very numerous and in many cases costly.

Mr. Andrew Smith, of Hampton Station, aged 78 years, a bachelor, residing with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Smith, passed away on Sunday after a long and wearing illness.

The Station schools closed on Saturday for the long vacation. On Friday afternoon a large number of friends attended the closing exercises, when after a programme of practical lessons and review work, songs, readings and manual drill, addresses were delivered by the Rev. J. R. Campbell, D. D., and Mr. Andrew Ruddick. The teachers, Mr. Rex R. Cormier and Miss B. Hoskin,
