

THE MEDICAL DEPARTMENT

— OF —

The Western University

The Seventeenth Session of this Medical School will open on Tuesday, the 3rd of October, 1898.

The regular lectures will commence in accordance with the published programme.

The College Building is commodious and well arranged, centrally located on the corner of Waterloo and York Streets, convenient to the Hospital and Dispensary, is heated, lighted and ventilated in the most approved manner, and supplied with all the latest improvements. The main building contains two spacious Lecture Halls, Chemical and Histological Laboratories, together with Museum, Waiting Room for Students, Reading Room, etc.

The Dissecting Room, being in a separate building, is a sanitary arrangement that will be much appreciated by students.

Intending students are requested to be present at the opening, so as to lose no portion of the course, for they may rest assured that even the most talented will find four years of close application none too much to prepare for this noble and responsible calling.

The Medical Department of the Western University is recognized by the Royal College of Physicians, London, the Royal College of Surgeons of England, Royal College of Surgeons and Physicians of Edinburgh, and Faculty of Physicians and Surgeons of Glasgow, and by the Royal College of Physicians and Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland.
