The best proof that

Minard's Liniment

has extraordinary merits, and is in good repute with the public, is that IT IS EXTENSIVELY IMITATED. The imitations resemble the genuine article in appearance only. They lack the general excellence of the Genuine.This notice is necessary, as injurious and dangerous imitations, liable to produce chronic inflammation of the skin, are often substituted for MINARD'S LINIMENT by Dealers, because they pay a larger profit.They Sell on the Merits and ## Circumventing the Chaperon.

"I thought she said she wouldn't go to the seashore with her aunt this summer because the latter insisted upon making her wear a loose and baggy bathing suit."
"She did, but she has changed her mind. She has evolved a great scheme, you know."

"What?"

"Well, her bathing suit is to be made baggy and loose enough, but she has selected a material that is warranted to shrink."

No Objection on His Part.

Tired of seeing him hanging about the neighborhood the citizens organized an amateur vigilance committee and proceeded to ride him out of town on a rail."Now, you pestiferous old vagabond," said the leader, "do you think you'll stay away from this part of the country after this?""Yes," replied Tufford Knott from his perch on the rail, "if you carry me far enough away."

you a big compliment today.

no denying that woman has sense. What did she say?Little Johnny—She said she didn't see how you came to have such a nice little boy as I was.

Right to Kick.

"Say, what right have you to kick?" asked the man. "You never vote."
"It's just the reason I have a right to kick," said the tall man with the unhappy look. "As long as I don't vote I am not to blame for the actions of the fellows that are elected."—Indianapolis

REASON.On board the Lake Champlain on her voyage to Halifax, among the returning Canadian soldiers is Private Hornsbrook of the 48th Regiment, Toronto, who is insane. The case is very sad.Private Hornsbrook has specially mentioned for bravery at Paardeberg. He performed a feat of valor which is one of the most notable in the history of the war. Having separated from his comrades during the night, he found himself next morning while trudging along unarmed and alone confronted by an armed Boer who demanded his surrender.Hornsbrook in turn called to an imaginary force behind him to "come on" and at the same time called on the Boer to surrender. The bluff worked. Thinking he was at the mercy of a British detachment the Boer promptly handed over his rifle and was marched by his captor into the British lines, when he proved to be an officer of Cronje's army.All hope that the affliction of this brave soldier is but temporary.

The Stomach's "Weal or Woe!"

—The stomach is the centre from which, from the standpoint of health, flows "weal or woe." A healthy stomach means perfect digestion—perfect digestion means strong and steady nerve centres—strong nerve centres mean good circulation, rich blood and good health. South American Nervine makes and keeps the stomach right.—52

THE REASON WHY

"Shiloh" Cures Consumption

Consumption is not merely a disease of the lungs so generally supposed, but before the lungs become inflamed the blood has—from various causes—been crowded with bacillus of Consumption. These germs are deposited in the lungs by the blood, causing inflammation, cough and the spitting up of diseased mucopurulent matter. Shiloh's Cure arrests the ravages of the germs by destroying them—it purifies the blood and enriches it—allaying inflammation and irritation and sets up a healing process which causes the sore parts to get well and cures Consumption.
Shiloh's Consumption Cure strengthens and tones the whole system and makes it particularly repellent to the dreaded germs of Consumption.It is guaranteed to accomplish this. If dissatisfied when  $\frac{1}{3}$  of a bottle has been used, return the remainder and the whole purchase money will be refunded.J. H. Caldwell of Malta, Idaho, writes as follows to S. C. Wells Toronto. "I have used SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE many different times and always received great benefit from it. I believe it saved my life in congestion of the lungs—and saved me from an attack of consumption, people said I had it."In Canada and United States, 25c., 50c. and \$1.00 a bottle. Great
