

Colds

It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and prepares the system for the more serious diseases, among which are the two greatest destroyers of human life, pneumonia and consumption.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

has won its great popularity by its prompt cures of this most common ailment. It aids expectoration, relieves the lungs and opens the secretions, effecting a speedy and permanent cure. It contracts any tendency toward pneumonia.

To the AGENT FOR NOVA SCOTIA OF AMOR'S ESSENCE OF COD LIVER OIL: Dear Sir,—It is only fair to you that I should drop you a line stating the benefits my family have received from using Amor's Essence of Cod Liver Oil. Last winter three of my children had a severe attack of bronchial trouble, and hearing of AMOR'S ESSENCE, we decided to give it a trial. We purchased a dollar bottle, and before half of it had been used the children were greatly relieved, and after the second bottle they were quite recovered. We kept on giving it to them, however, for some time as we found it made them more robust, and, unlike most of cod liver oil preparations, they did not refuse to take it, as the taste was so completely disguised. I can recommend Amor's Essence for all kinds of coughs and colds. I never fail to take a dose of it myself before retiring, as I find it strengthens the throat.

Yours very truly,

What is Dyspepsia?
Qualms; nausea; longing for food yet dreading to eat. You may have the real thing, but Ferrozene will cure you like it did S. D. Huntingdon of Hamilton, who says 'I frequently was attacked with such acute dyspepsia that I thought it must be heart disease. I used Ferrozene and got relief. I kept on using Ferrozene and was cured. My digestion is in perfect order and I can eat anything today.' Nothing is as good as Ferrozene for dyspepsia and those bothered with weak stomachs. Grip Quickly Knocked Out.
"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Engleton of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with all the usual spells of chills and fever." We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip. These Tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by Rand's Drug Store.

A Certain Cure for Croup.
When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has never been known to fail and it has been in use for many years, viz: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. M. F. Compton of Market, Texas, says of it, "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief."

For sprains, bruises, burns, scalds and similar injuries, there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's P. O. Balm. It soothes the wound and not only gives instant relief from pain, but causes the parts to heal in about one third the time required by the usual treatment. Sold by Rand's Drug Store.

The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.
The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age, will occasionally eat too much or some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by Rand's Drug Store.

Permanent Cure for Bronchitis
"My second daughter was troubled with bronchitis from the age of three weeks. Oftentimes I thought she would choke to death. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine brought relief, and further treatment made a thorough cure. This trouble used to come back from time to time, but the cure is now permanent."—Mrs. Kenneth W. Wrenshaw, Shabouacadi, Haiti, C. S.

Logi.

Professor Palmer, of Harvard, says that the masculine habit of rigid logical reasoning is contracted very early, and in illustration he tells the following story:

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Danforth, of St. Joseph, Mich., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapsus or falling of the womb. The words sounded like a knell to me. I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored the lost forces returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily, and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for the help I obtained through its use."—Mrs. Florence Danforth, 107 Mills Ave., St. Joseph, Mich.—1899.

"FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN."

Women would save time and much sickness if they would write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice as soon as any distressing symptoms appear. It is free, and has put thousands of women on the right road to recovery.

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham—My acquaintance was tucked up snug in bed when her mother heard them talking. I wonder what we're here for? asked the little boy. The girl remembered the lessons that had been taught her and replied sweetly: 'We are here to help others. The little boy sniffed. Then what are the others here for?' he asked.

Stop the Distillery.

Bar-rooms will be abolished. They are an iniquity and therefore, like all abominations, have to go. The time of their going depends on the spiritual energy of Christians. Curing a drunkard is healing a snake bite. Closing a bar-room is killing a cobra. Stopping the distilleries is destroying the entire serpentine family.—Christian Standard.

Good-bye, Drink Did It!

The press despatches of April and contained the following letter written by William Dan, Davenport, Iowa, who on the previous day threw himself under a train and was instantly killed:

"Dear Lena, good-bye. I cannot stop drinking, and have decided to stop it all. My dear little wife, while I am sleeping in my grave I shall be wearing your picture on my coat."

Still there are those who cannot or will not comprehend the awfulness of the drink habit.

William Dau very evidently loved his wife in a manner that would under ordinary circumstances have made a mother weep and sigh.

Drink claimed him despite his love for his home.

It will be in order for some one to explain how regulation of the whiskey business operates to save men of this kind.

If regulation fails in such cases, then the human law of protecting the weak against the strong demands recognition.

The law for such cases as the one in question is a law that will abolish the whole bar-room system.—The New Commonwealth.

Queen Esther Wanted.

We cannot but recognize that the keynote of the Gospel of Christ is his teaching of the infinite value of the individual. From the hour that he told his followers the story of the one lost sheep, and drew the picture of the shepherd who left all the rest and went into the bleak mountain fastness until he had rescued the straying lamb—through all the history of his life and dealings with men he emphasized the value of the individual; in the house of the rich man he individualized the woman whose act of loving penitence was to be told to all the world; in his words to the young man who came with puzzled question, and on whom he looked with the eyes of tenderest compassion, and beholding him, loved him. He loved the individual for his desire, pitied him because he knew the idiosyncrasies of St. Peter, the penitence of the Magdalene, the tenderness of his mother—each one stood out before him, clearly outlined on the horizon of his mind; and it is this knowledge of the methods of Jesus that should make us realize that we have to give ourselves to the men and women one by one, whom we want to rescue. And so, if we are to be of any use in the world, if in our day it is to be cleansed from the violence done through drink, from the iniquity of the sweating system; if the ignorant are to be taught and the degraded raised; if pauperism is to be wiped out and the drink traffic trodden underfoot—it can only be as we accept the mission to the individual, only as we, like Queen Esther, lay aside the trammels of conventionality, and are willing to go out for the salvation of our people, for thus, and thus only, can it be said of us that we 'came into the kingdom for such a time.'—Northern Messenger.

A Priest's Appeal to Women

In a sermon preached in St. Leo's Church, in St. Louis, Father James T. Coffey preached a vigorous temperance sermon, in which he specially blamed women for their aid and use of the temperance cause and saving of 'drinking practices. Here is a part of what he said:

Woman plays a most important

IS YOUR CHILD IN DANGER?

Is your child in danger from croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, or chest colds? Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has time and again proven its right to a place in your home as a safeguard against these ills which threaten your children.

Being pleasant to the taste, DR. CHASE'S SYRUP OF LINSEED AND TURPENTINE is well liked by children. As it is perfectly free from injurious drugs of any kind, it can be used with perfect safety so long as directions are followed.

Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine, 25 cents a bottle, at all dealers. To protect you against imitations the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every bottle.

part in the affairs of this world. Her influence for good and evil is almost unlimited. In her home relations as mother, wife or sister, she holds absolute sway. It has been said that more truth than poetry in this declaration.

It is the worldly and selfish woman who boasts there is no harm in drinking intoxicants. It is the rash and foolish woman who, in our times and under such conditions as we have, instills into the blood of her offspring the desire for strong drink or puts the brimming glass for the first time in their childish lips. Strong drink has wrought havoc in the homes of culture and influence in this country. It has likewise ruined thousands of families among the laboring people. The women are to blame. In one instance, society demands it, and since society rules, it is the woman of refinement and wealth who says 'no' without being severely reprimanded or completely ostracized. In the other instance, among the laboring people, custom holds sway, and custom says it is unbecoming and uncouth not to imbibe. So to save themselves from being tabooed as 'cranks' and 'oddities' the women drink and serve liquor to their children and their friends.

Don't blame the bar-room; don't blame the police; don't blame the laws—blame yourselves. You sowed the wind, you are now reaping the whirlwind. Women, you rule the home, the social world and man. It is in your power to influence for good or for evil. In the name of heaven, home, country and religion, put your veto on the serving of intoxicating drinks at every home gathering. Rub out the poison and save yourselves and your children.

KEEP THE BLOOD PURE.

NEARLY ALL THE COMMON ILLS OF LIFE ARE CAUSED BY WEAK WATERY AND IMPURE BLOOD.

Bad blood means bad health. That is why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills mean good health—they actually make new rich blood. Bad blood poisons the whole system. Then the nerves break down, the liver goes wrong, the kidneys get clogged and inflamed, the heart flutters and jumps at the least excitement, the stomach loses its power to digest food, the lungs are unable to throw off the lingering odors, in fact the whole body gets out of order. Then you have headaches and backaches, can't sleep and can't eat and feel utterly miserable. And it all comes from bad blood and can be cured by the rich, red blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills sends coursing to every part of the body.

Mr. Daniel McKinnon, of North Pelham, Ont., suffered from bad blood, but has been made well and strong by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills after all other treatment had failed. Mr. McKinnon, says: "Until last spring I had been afflicted with a weak stomach, headaches and kidney troubles. At times I was completely prostrated and my sufferings were of a most severe nature. At different times I was treated by no less than seven doctors, but from none of them did I get more than temporary relief. As time went on I despaired of ever being well again. Last spring a friend drew my attention to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to try this medicine. I had taken four boxes when I found a decided improvement in my condition, and I continued using the pills until I had taken a dozen boxes when I was cured and my sufferings I had formerly endured were but a disagreeable memory. I admit being an enthusiastic admirer of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, but I think I have just cause for my enthusiasm and will always recommend them to my ailing friends."

Just as surely as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured Mr. McKinnon they cure asthma, indigestion, headaches, backaches, kidney troubles, rheumatism, lumbago, sciatic neuralgia, nervousness, general weakness and the special ailments of growing girls and women. All these ailments come from bad blood. But you must be sure to have the genuine pills with the full name Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People on the wrapper around every box. Sold by medicine dealers everywhere or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
