All Dalhousie students should get out!

BY ARAN MCKITTRICK

The Dalhousie Outdoor Club is one of the newest clubs to appear on campus. It was created by several enthusiastic Dalhousie Students who enjoy the "wealth of the wilderness" by hiking, kayaking, canoeing, climbing, backcountry skiing, cycling and camping.

During the second week of school the D.O.C ran a campaign to publicize the creation of their new club and to encourage people to join. Over the two day period one hundred and sixty people signed up while close to one hundred attended the first meeting! Dalhousie was the only university in Canada to not have an outdoors club until now.

The Club's goal however, is not just to organise different activities for its members, but also to help subsidize the cost of these activities through fundraising events and potential sponsorship such as from the Dalhousie Student Union and Dalplex. The club's executive committee is also involved in the promotion of environmental preservation by cooperating with the Campus Environmental Action Group, the Canadian Hostelling Association and the Youth Leadership Council.

Can anyone direct us to the outdoors, please?

Since September twenty eighth the D.O.C have organized an outdoor activity every weekend. The first few trips involved a bike trip to Crystal Crescent an overnight hike at Kejimikujik National Park and a rock climbing day trip. Some of their future plans involve guest lecturers such as a Native Spiritualist and also other lectures by experts in the field.

The D.O.C have already started fundraising events and are eager to increase their meagre budget to purchase equipment for the club and its members. With a potential grant from the D.S.U. and Dalplex this increase may soon become a reality. So if you're interested in joining the D.O.C. or are just interested in supporting them, speak to one of your friendly D.S.U representatives and tell him/her about the D.O.C and its goals.

The D.O.C holds regular meetings on Wednesdays at 4:30 in room 307 of the Student Union Building. If you have any questions or concerns call the president of the D.O.C Victoria Wosk. Her number can be found at the inquiry desk of the S.U.B.
